

Each One Reach One Mentoring Program

Each One Reach One is designed to introduce African-American first-year students to the concepts of unity and community in order to facilitate a smooth transition and promote achievement within the University of Delaware community.

CENTER FOR BLACK CULTURE
UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE
192 S. COLLEGE AVE
NEWARK, DE

Mission Statement

The mission of the Each One Reach One Program is to increase the retention rate of African-American students at the University of Delaware by providing a sense of community that fosters academic achievement and success, while encouraging interpersonal and community growth with a commitment to nurturing growth in others.

KEY PRINCIPLES

NGUZA SABA
Seven Principles of Kwanzaa

UMOJA
KUJICHAGULIA
UJIMA
UJAMAA
NIA
KUUMBA
IMANI

ROADS

Responsibility
Orders
Attitudes
Disciplines
Spirituality

WANT TO JOIN?

Applications are available at the Center for Black Culture. You can also apply using the CBC website: www.udel.edu/CBC/

For more information contact 302-831-2991.

Program Objectives

- To create a supportive, thriving environment
- To establish bonds in the community that will be maintained and strengthened throughout the academic experience
- To develop academic, social, and cultural excellence within a supportive environment
- To cultivate a sense of responsibility to oneself and one's world