In Honor and Remembrance of the Little Rock Nine, the Center for Black Culture Presents

SIT-IN & STUDY SUNDAYS

MARCH 13th • APRIL 17th • MAY 15th

2pm - 6pm
PURNELL HALL
Quiet Study Room 236
Group Study Room 116

In 1957, The Little Rock Nine risked their lives and paved the way toward an integrated and quality education system for all Americans. In honor of these courageous students, the Sit-In and Study program was piloted in 2013 to improve the academic performance of African American and Latino students.

Join us in creating a culture of study and community!

Click here to RSVP for the event. Dinner to follow! (at the CBC)

* Please note late registration received after Friday 12 noon prior to a Sit In & Study may not guarantee dinner.*

Sponsors: Center for Black Culture with support from the Cultural Programming Advisory Board, Black Student Union, National Society of Black Engineers, Delaware African Students Association, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Lambda Sigma Upsilon Latino Fraternity, Inc., Dark Arts, Campus Alliance De La Raza, and the Office of Student Wellness and Health Promotion.
