

Internships

Looking for an Internship? There are many different ways of going about your search and the Career Library is a great place to start!

Resources for Locating Internships at the Career Library:

- Blue Hen Careers: use the Career Services data base of jobs and internships to locate local, regional, and national internships <http://www.udel.edu/CSC/bluehencareers.html>
- Internship directories and books (listed below)
- www.Internships.com Register with your name and email to search over 13,000 internships
- www.indeed.com A search engine for jobs and internships that allows job seekers to find positions posted on thousands of company career sites and job boards
- <http://udel.careershift.com> Job hunting site that allows job seekers to search, select, and store job listings from job boards and company job postings
- www.udel.edu/CSC/jobnet.html A listing of college-oriented job/internships websites
- For more information about obtaining credit for an internship, visit this link from the Career Services website, <http://www.udel.edu/CSC/intern.html>

The resources listed below are all helpful, but by no means a final list of where to look for internships. Don't forget to stop by the Career Services Center for help with your resume and cover letter!
