E-Safety Program for Making Americans Safer

Better Information, Faster, to the Right People

ComCARE is a non-profit Alliance of more than 90 organizations representing the full range of emergency response and management, automotive, citizens, communications, technology, and transportation.
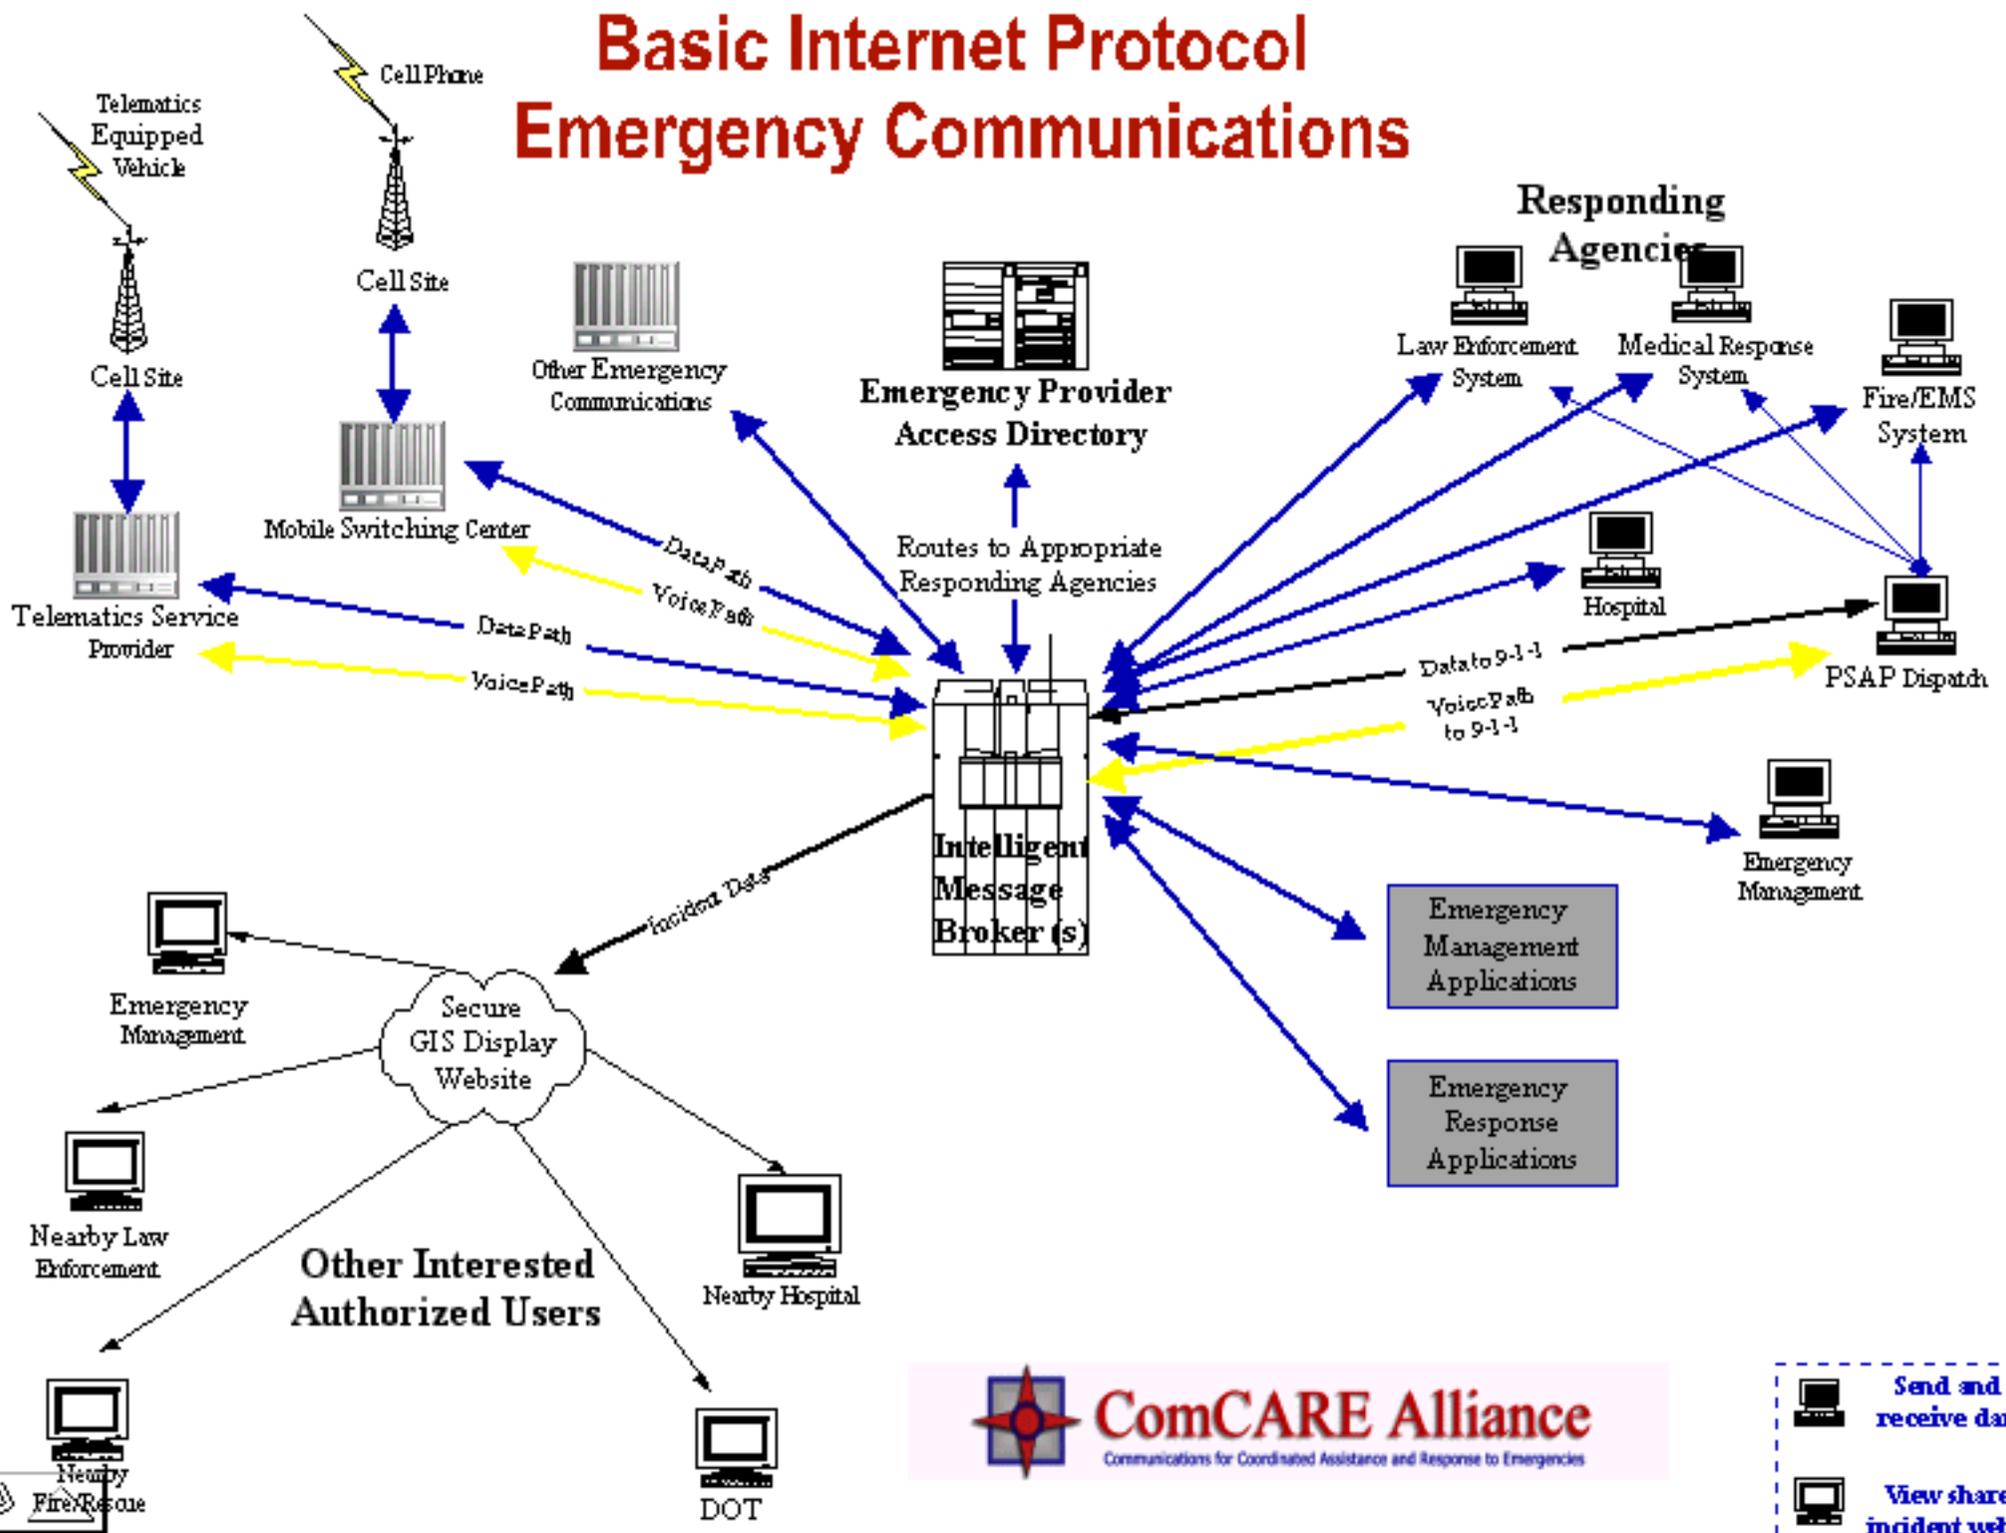

Today's Threats:
Are we prepared?

New Emergency Infrastructure: Walmart & VISA Meet EMS & Homeland Security
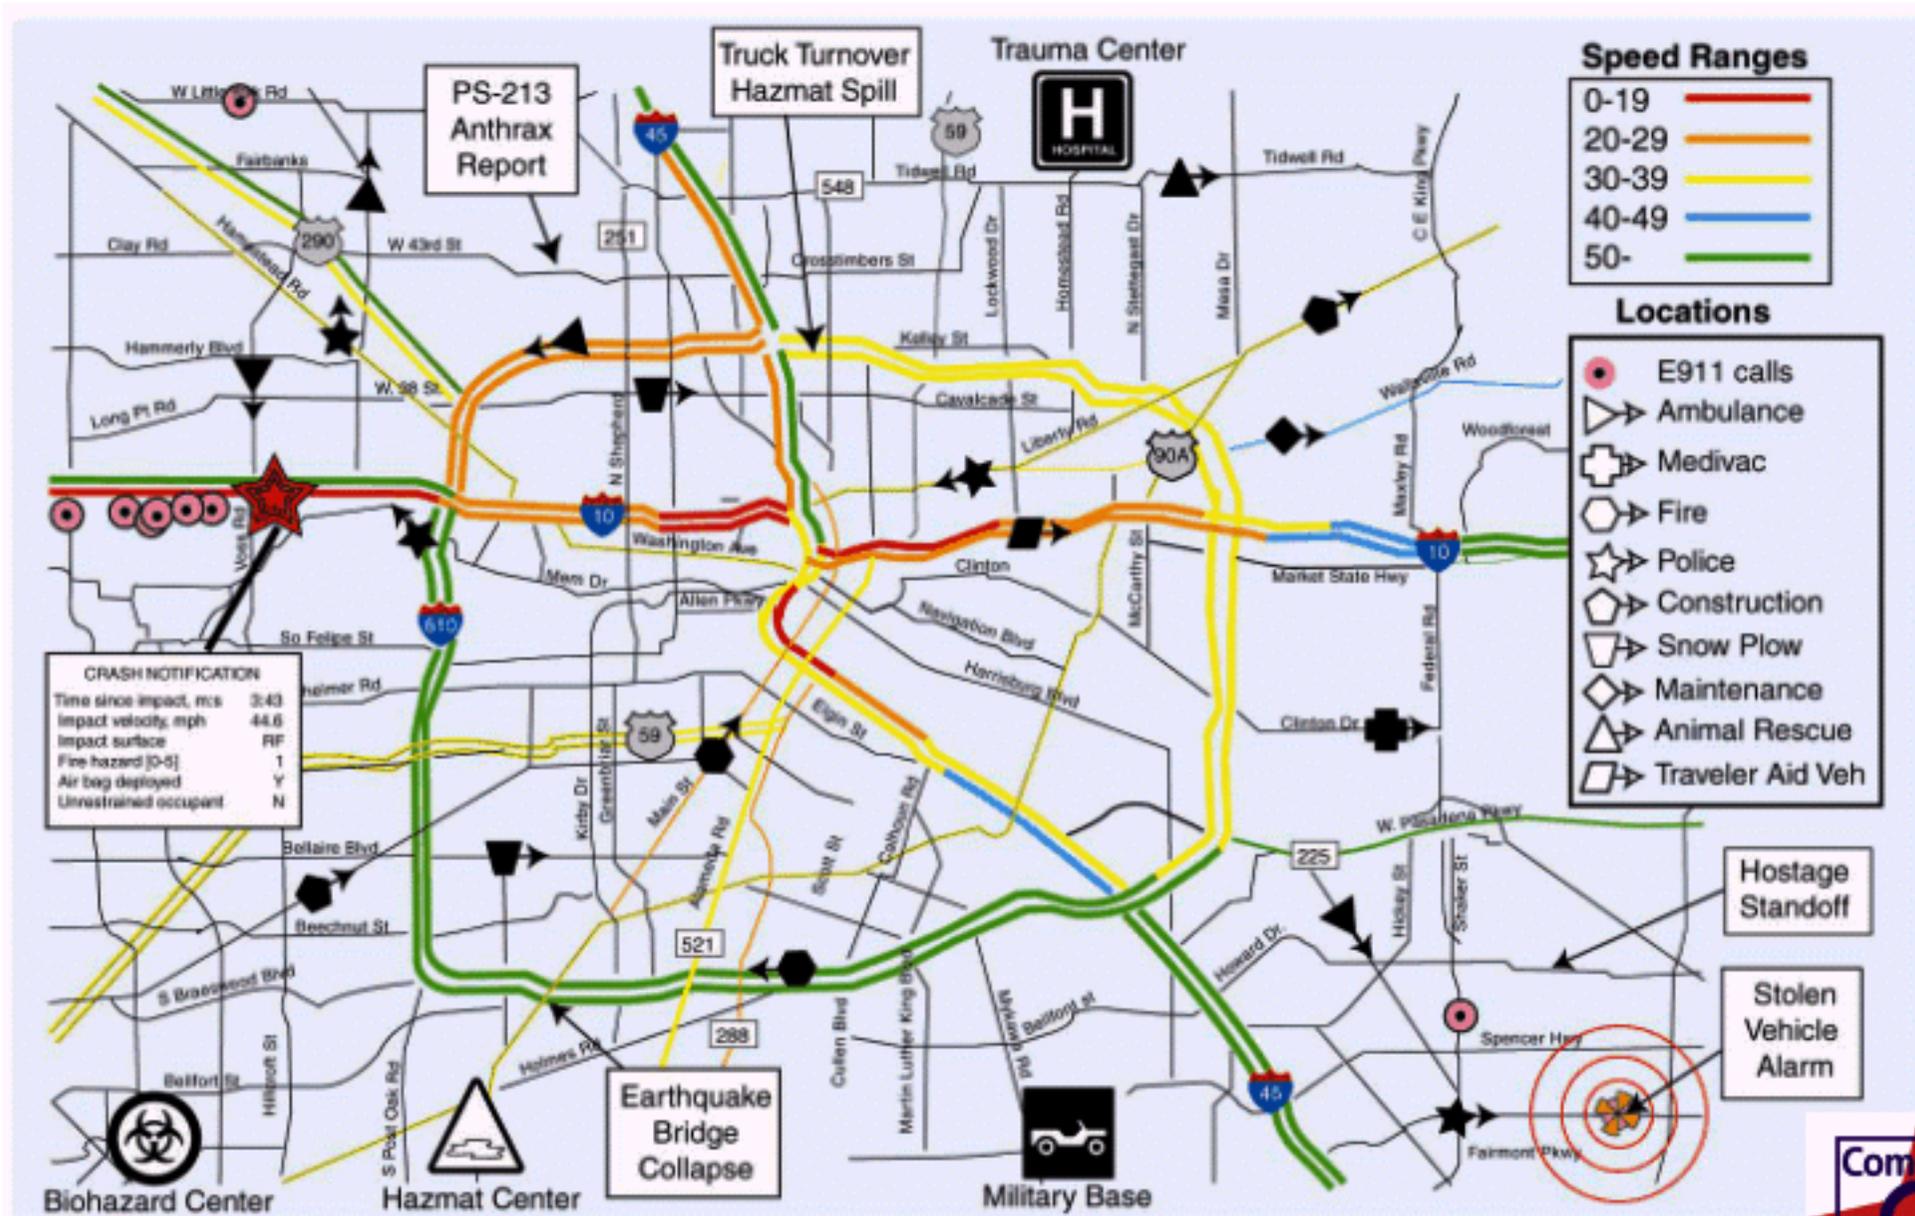

Basic Internet Protocol Emergency Communications

Telematics Equipped Vehicle

Cell Phone

Cell Site

Cell Site

Telematics Service Provider

Mobile Switching Center

Other Emergency Communications

Emergency Provider Access Directory

Responding Agencies

Law Enforcement System

Medical Response System

Fire/EMS System

Hospital

Routes to Appropriate Responding Agencies

Data Path

Voice Path

Data Path

Voice Path

Incident Data

Data to 9-1-1

Voice Path to 9-1-1

PSAP Dispatch

Intelligent Message Broker (s)

Emergency Management

Emergency Management Applications

Emergency Response Applications

Secure GIS Display Website

Emergency Management

Nearby Law Enforcement

Other Interested Authorized Users

Nearby Hospital

Nearby Fire/Rescue

DOT

ComCARE Alliance
Communications for Coordinated Assistance and Response to Emergencies

Send and receive data

View shared incident website

Integrating Emergency Communications GIS and Data Fusion

EPAD: GIS-Oriented Registry of Emergency Agencies

The Team

Public Health

Emergency Management

Citizen Groups Businesses

Emergency Medical

Elected and Senior Officials

Communications

Law Enforcement

Hospital

Fire

Technology Sector

Transportation

9-1-1

ComCARE Alliance

For More Information Contact:

ComCARE Alliance
888 17th Street, N.W., 12th Floor
Washington, DC 20006
(202) 429-0574

Web: www.comcare.org
e-mail: info@comcare.org

Art Botterell, Associate Director
abotterell@comcare.org