

CURRICULUM VITA

Yda Schreuder, PhD.

Educational Background

University of Groningen, the Netherlands	Geography	B.A. 1971
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI	Anthropology	M.A. 1975
University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI	Geography	PhD. 1982

Academic Appointments

Senior Policy Fellow
Center for Energy and Environmental Policy (1997-present)
University of Delaware, Newark, DE

Associate Professor of Geography (1990-present)
Department of Geography
University of Delaware, Newark, DE

Assistant Professor of Geography (1982-1990)
Department of Geography
University of Delaware, Newark, DE

Lecturer in Geography (1981-1982)
Department of Geography
University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI

Lecturer in Geography and Anthropology (1979-1981)
Department of Geography and Anthropology
University of Maryland, College Park
European division, Heidelberg, Germany

Teaching Portfolio

Regularly taught courses:

GEOG120: World Regional Geography
GEOG210: Economic Geography
GEOG236: Conservation Global Issues
GEOG422/622: Resources, Development and the Environment

Special-interest courses:

GEOG467/667: Perspectives on Migration – An Interdisciplinary Approach
GEOG390: Honors Colloquium: The New World Order in Europe
Honors Colloquium: Globalization and International Migration

Book and Journal Publications

The Corporate Greenhouse: Climate Change Policy in a Globalizing World (Zed Books, London, New York, 2009)

“Evidence from the Notarial Protocols in the Amsterdam Municipal Archives about Trade Relationships between Amsterdam and Barbados in the 17th Century,” Journal of the Barbados Museum and Historical Society, Volume 52, 2006, 54-82

“EU Emissions Trading Scheme in the Corporate Greenhouse: A Predicament for Power Intensive Industries,” Forum on Public Policy: Special Issue on Trade and the Environment, Volume 1, 1, 2005, 190-204.

“A True Global Community: Sephardic Jews, the Sugar Trade, and Barbados in the Seventeenth Century,” Journal of the Barbados Museum and Historical Society, Volume 50, 2004, 166-194.

“The Influence of the Dutch Colonial Trade on Barbados in the Seventeenth Century,” Journal of the Barbados Museum and Historical Society, Volume 48, 2002, 43-63

“Flexible Mechanisms in the Corporate Greenhouse: Implementation of the Kyoto Protocol and the Globalization of the Electric Power Industry,” (with Christopher Sherry), Energy and Environment, Volume 12, 5-6, 2001, 487-498

“The Polder Model in Dutch Economic and Environmental Planning,” Bulletin of Science, Technology and Society, Volume 21, 4, 2001, 237-245

“Global Corporations in the Greenhouse: Developing Equitable Accounting Measures,” (with Christopher Sherry), Bulletin of Science, Technology and Society, Volume 19, 6, 1999, 511-520

“Making Medicines: The Geography of the Pharmaceutical Industry in the United States”. Introduction to Theme Issue: Environment and Planning, 30, 10, 1998, 1717-1719

“The German-American Pharmaceutical Business Establishment in the New York Metropolitan Region”. Environment and Planning 30, 10, 1998, 1743-1756

“Initial Advantage: The Origins of the Geographical Concentration of the Pharmaceutical Industry in the Mid-Atlantic Region,” (with Maryann Feldman), Industrial and Corporate Change 5, 3, 1996, 839-863

“The Historical Development of the Pharmaceutical Industry in the Mid-Atlantic Region,” (with Maryann Feldman), The Pennsylvania Geographer 33, 2, 1995, 3-22

Educational Grants and Awards

Center for International Studies Faculty Fellows Program: 2007, to build collaborative educational exchange and research with the University of Groningen in the Netherlands

International Travel Award, Center for International Studies, 2004, to participate in the Oxford Round Table: Trade, Growth, and the Environment, Oxford University UK

Global Citizenship Faculty Fellows Award, 2003, for course development with global/international content.

Institute for Transforming Undergraduate Education Award, 2001: for Problem-Based Learning: Integrating active learning with online resources

General Education Teaching Award, 2000, for development of “Pathways” courses; University of Delaware initiative to reform undergraduate education

Center for Teaching Effectiveness Improvement of Instruction Award, 1995: for the development of an inter-disciplinary course on International Migration.

Salzburg Seminar, 1995, for participation in a week long session on “Involuntary Migration,”

Research Awards

NSF Grant Proposal, submitted to Geography and Regional Science division: title of proposed research: Assessment of Vulnerability toward the Achievement of Sustainability in Dominica. January 2005

NSF Award (with Maryann Feldman), 1995-1997: Geography and Regional Science Division: Historical Geography of the Pharmaceutical Industry in the Mid-Atlantic Region (resulting in four publications in professional refereed journals)

Interdisciplinary and International Research and Teaching

1. Collaboration with colleagues and graduate students in the Center for Energy and Environmental Policy, University of Delaware, researching land-use, watershed, and sustainable development issues (since 1997)
2. Collaboration with colleagues and graduate students in the Department of Geography researching climate change and water resources issues and Department of Political Science/International Relations on International Migration
3. Collaboration with colleagues and graduate students in the Institute for Energy and Environment (IVEM), University of Groningen, the Netherlands, researching climate change, and water management issues (since 1997)

