

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Application for

STEWART INTERNSHIP

The Department of History invites applications from junior and senior majors in history for the E. Lyman Stewart Internship. The successful applicant(s) will receive a stipend of $3,000, and will work for ten weeks during the summer of 2010. Examples of sites for internships include:

Historical Society of Delaware (Wilmington)
Biggs Museum of American Art (Dover)
Fort Delaware Society (Delaware City)

Delaware State Parks (several locations)
Delaware State Museum (several locations)

Junior and senior majors in history at the University of Delaware in 2009-2010, with a 3.0 g.p.a., are eligible to apply. Precise dates for the internship can be arranged at the location of the internship.

Deadline for applications: March 18, 2011.

* * *

Please submit the following information, using this announcement as your cover sheet:

Name _____ Student ID _____

Email address _____ Local address _____

Classification _____ Over-all GPA _____ History GPA _____

Names of two faculty references: (You do not need letters of recommendation.)

1 _____

2 _____

Please also submit:

- 1) An unofficial copy of your University transcript;
- 2) A one to two page letter of application which includes a statement outlining your particular academic accomplishments and interests which might qualify you to receive a Stewart Internship. Indicate your preference for any of the locations listed above.

* * *

Applications should be addressed to Professor Daniel Callahan and sent to: Ms. Cathy Allison, Department of History, University of Delaware, Newark, DE 19716. Any questions call: Ms. Allison, 831-8413.