

Women's History Month

UPCOMING EVENTS

MARCH 2008

22nd ANNUAL WOMEN'S HISTORY FILM SERIES

February 26-March 25
Room 004 Kirkbride
7:00 p.m.

February 26

"Been Rich All My Life"

Speaker: Kariamuwelsh
Temple University

March 4

"Maquilapolis (City of Factories)"

Speaker: Vicki Funari
Director/Producer of Maquilaolis

March 11

"Transparent"

Speaker: Rebecca L. Davis
Tammy Zebly,
University of Delaware

March 18

"I Had an Abortion"

Speaker: Catherine Dukes
Diana McWilliams,
Planned Parenthood

March 25

"Girl Trouble"

Speaker: Maria Ochoa,
San Jose State University

Free and Open to the Public
For more information, call
(302) 831-8063 or (302) 831-8474

March 1, Delaware Women's Conference
Clayton Hall, 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Each year since 1984, the Delaware Women's Conference has brought women together to learn, network, relax and grow by offering diverse workshops, an inspirational speaker, various exhibitors, a women's art show and safe place to share and learn. Conference fee is $45. To learn more and register, Visit <http://www.delawarewomen.org/conference-information.html>

March 6, This is What a Feminist Looks Like
Perkins Student Center, Rodney Room, 7:00 p.m.

Feminism has recently been called "officially out of style," irrelevant and a quaint relic of the 1960s. A student panel will gather to discuss the relevance, challenges and opportunities for feminism in today's so-called post-feminist era, drawing from diverse standpoints and experiences.

March 6, Kelli Dunham, Stand-Up Comedian
Perkins Student Center, Rodney Room, 9:00 p.m.

Kelli Dunham is one of the co-founders of the Famous Lesbian Comedy Road Show and Gayety, a three city queer experimental comedy performing series. She is also the author of four books. She describes herself as a comic, a writer and a complete dork. The rest, as they say, is history.

March 7 and 8, Vagina Monologues
Mitchell Hall, 8:00 p.m.

Celebrated as the new bible for a new generation of women, Eve Ensler's "Vagina Monologues," an Obie Award winning episodic play, is a celebration of female sexuality in all its complexity. This student production of Eve Ensler's play will re-create real women's stories of intimacy, vulnerability and sexual self-discovery. Tickets available through TicketMaster and UD Box Offices.

March 13, How to Cause a Scene: The Impressive, Militant Tactics of the National Woman's Party

Trabant University Center, MPR-A, 12:00 noon

Alice Paul's National Woman's Party gained national and international recognition during the Suffrage campaign through a revolutionary strategy of sustained dramatic, nonviolence protest. The Sewall-Belmont House and Museum, in Washington, DC, visits UD with some historical NWP artifacts showcasing Alice Paul's legacy of achieving women's rights.

March 20, Rachel Simmons
SAGE, Trabant University Center, MPR-A, 7:00 p.m.

Rachel Simmons, founding director of the Girls Leadership Institute and New York Times bestselling author of "Odd Girl Out: The Hidden Culture of Aggression in Girls," and "Odd Girl Speaks Out: Girls Write About Bullies, Cliques, Popularity and Jealousy," will speak about a growing number of women who have been affected by the confusion surrounding alternative and indirect modes of expressing aggression. Participants will learn from Simmons' proactive approach in engaging students, teachers, and administrators in developing suggestions for change and a language to address female bullying within the secondary education.

March 26, Stories Worth Repeating
Trabant University Center, MPR-A, 12:00 noon

Sharon Moore will share stories of individual challenges and successes composed from personal interviews. A display of t-shirts, memory quilts and scrapbooks will show other forms for capturing other significant events.

Sponsored by: Office of Women's Affairs, Women's Studies Program, Political Science Department, LBGT Community Office, Student Organizations of NOWCAN, SAGE.

www.udel.edu/OWA