

Schedule

All student talks will consist of a twenty-minute presentation followed by fifteen minutes for questions.

9:30 Breakfast

10:00 Opening Remarks

10:10 Ross Vandegrift, University of Delaware
Abortion and Infanticide and Materialists

10:45 AJ DeBonis, Eastern University
A Comparison of Ontologies: Boredom and Wonder in Judging and Producing Cultural Artifacts

11:20 Katherine Sepulveda, Bryn Mawr College
Derrida and Gadamer: An Unnecessary Rupture

11:55 Caitlin Bursack, Temple University
Vision in God: A Dichotomy that Still Haunts Humans Today

12:30 Lunch

1:30 Adam Croom, University of Pennsylvania
Wittgenstein, Kripke, and the Rule Following Paradox

2:05 Colin Smith, Temple University
The Paradox of Musical Universality

2:40 James Harrell, University of Maryland
De Re Modality and Lewis' Modal Realism: The Case for Vague Objects

3:15 Break

3:30 David Norton Memorial Lecture
Dr. Larry Temkin, Professor of Philosophy, Rutgers University
Rethinking the Good: Moral Ideals and the Nature of Practical Reasoning

5:00 Reception