

Print name: _____

QUIZ 3B
Anthropology 101
Spring 2007

1. A comparison of males and females observed for the class clothing exercise revealed that
 - a. messages about UD affiliation occurred most frequently for both
 - b. the most frequently occurring messages were UD affiliation for males and socioeconomic status for females
 - c. messages about socioeconomic status occurred most frequently for both
 - d. the most frequently occurring messages were socioeconomic status for males and UD affiliation for females

2. In the four part classification system of political systems, which type is associated with centralized, ascribed leadership without government?
 - a. bands
 - b. tribes
 - c. chiefdoms
 - d. states
 - e. nation state

3. In addition to alcohol what else did the male age set members swallow in the class video?
 - a. live salamanders
 - b. cow's blood
 - c. live goldfish
 - d. a and b
 - e. b and c

4. The term anthropologists use what term to refer to the stages that a group of people of roughly the same age and often the same gender pass through together?
 - a. age grade
 - b. age set
 - c. age association
 - d. age level

5. In class we stated that the single most important defining characteristic of religion cross-culturally is
 - a. its psychological functions
 - b. its social functions
 - c. its explanations of the unexplainable
 - d. its belief in a supernatural power

6. In class we concluded that the number of levels in the U.S. stratification system is
 - a. 3
 - b. 6
 - c. 9
 - d. 18
 - e. we disagreed

7. Among primate groups, social hierarchies established on the basis of sex and age are called
 - a. caste systems
 - b. class systems
 - c. stratification systems
 - d. dominance hierarchies

8. In class we stated that the primary difference between ethnic groups and cultural groups is that
 - a. ethnic groups don't change
 - b. ethnic groups differ in physical appearance
 - c. ethnic groups exist within nation states
 - d. all of the above

9. According to the text, warfare is undertaken primarily for economic and political goals in what kind of society?
 - a. bands
 - b. tribes
 - c. chiefdoms
 - d. states

10. The husband in the video "We Are All neighbors" spent his free time
 - a. drinking alcohol
 - b. doing yardwork
 - c. chopping wood
 - d. playing cards

11. The text defines _____ as the religious worldview of a people, including beliefs about the origin of the world, the pantheon of deities that exist, and their relationships to the spirit realm.
- mana
 - animatism
 - totemism
 - cosmology
 - animism
12. In the supplemental reading entitled “Karl’s New Manifesto,” the author argues that in the United States today
- by controlling access to higher education, the elite perpetuate their privileged positions
 - members of all classes have equal access to higher education
 - future success depends more on just getting an education rather than on where you get that education
 - financial aid for higher education is helping reduce class differences
13. In the supplemental reading entitled “Prehistory of Warfare” the author argues that warfare is caused most frequently by
- resource stress
 - boundary disputes
 - disagreements about religion
 - power hungry rulers
14. The terms _____ refers to philosophies of what is beautiful.
- mimetic
 - aesthetics
 - representational
 - art
15. In class we stated that cargo cults, the ghost dance, the Mormon church, the Peoples’ Temple, and Heaven’s Gate are all examples of
- revitalization movements
 - syncretism
 - fundamentalism
 - totemism
16. In the four part classification system of political systems, which type is associated with achieved leadership by individuals known as “big men” and informal mechanisms of enforcing norms?
- bands
 - tribes
 - chiefdoms
 - states
 - nation states
17. In class we defined _____ as religion in action.
- mana
 - animatism
 - myths
 - rituals
18. Caste-based stratification systems are characterized by
- social mobility
 - no social mobility
 - ambiguous social divisions
 - a and c
 - b and c
19. Anthropologists would call this class, the UD women’s basketball team, UD marching band, the Sierra Club, Mothers against Drunk Driving, Amnesty International, and the Delaware National Guard examples of
- moieties
 - clubs
 - common interest associations
 - mutual associations
20. In the class video what did the members of the Bronx gang throw?
- bowling ball
 - baseball
 - football
 - brick
21. The art form of clothing is like slang because both
- can be creative
 - follow rules
 - bind members of groups together
 - distinguish groups from one another
 - all of the above