

Print your name : _____

QUIZ 1B
Anthropology 101
Fall 2006

On your scantron answer sheet shade in the appropriate bubbles for your name, quiz number, and the answers to the following questions.

1. The _____ perspective is concerned with what the members of a culture think about their own culture.
 - a. etic
 - b. ethnographic
 - c. ethnological
 - d. emic

2. In class we discussed how all of the subdisciplines of anthropology are:
 - a. holistic
 - b. comparative
 - c. interested in regularities and variation in groups of people
 - d. interested in change
 - e. all of the above

3. When we say that culture is _____, we mean that it is the primary way in which people are able to survive in their environments.
 - a. ecological
 - b. naturalized
 - c. adaptive
 - d. persistent

4. Different anthropological theories identify different aspects of culture as most important.
 - a. true
 - b. false

5. The three levels of human language are in order from the lowest to the highest
 - a. morphemes, phonemes, syntax
 - b. syntax, phonemes, morphemes
 - c. phonemes, syntax, morphemes,
 - d. phonemes, morphemes, syntax

6. The major technique that cultural anthropologists use to conduct fieldwork is
 - a. etic analysis
 - b. observation-participation
 - c. participant observation
 - d. informant interview

7. The feeling of being disoriented when being immersed in a new culture for the first time is known as
 - a. culture disorder
 - b. ethnocentrism
 - c. culture shock
 - d. etic

8. Unlike the communication systems of other species, human language is characterized by _____, which is the ability to talk about something that is not happening in the moment.

- a. conventionality
- b. productivity
- c. displacement
- d. duality

9. In class we described culture as being _____ to indicate that its various dimensions tend to fit together so that changes in one dimension cause changes in the others.

- a. integrated
- b. instrumental
- c. holistic
- d. intra-cultural

10. In class we defined anthropology as the study of humanity and said that it was divided into how many subdisciplines?

- a. 2
- b. 3
- c. 4
- d. 5
- e. 6

11. The _____ hypothesis states that the language you speak affects how you perceive reality.

- a. Whorf-Sapir
- b. Sapir-Whorf
- c. ethnosemantic
- d. sociolinguistics

12. Anthropologists use what term to refer to standards of appropriate behavior shared by members of a culture?

- a. narratives
- b. norms
- c. beliefs
- d. taboos

13. A difficulty in taking the concept of cultural relativism to its logical extreme is that we would have to conclude that there should be no universal standard of human rights.

- a. true
- b. false

14. Slang is an example of how human language is

- a. dynamic
- b. binds members of a group together
- c. separates a group of people from other groups
- d. all of the above
- e. b and c only

15. Perceiving and negatively judging another culture using the standards of your own culture is called

- a. ethnogenesis
- b. ethnoculturalism
- c. ethnography
- d. ethnocentrism

16. The assigned reading for today's class was on the topic of

- a. gender
- b. learning one's culture
- c. applied anthropology
- d. making a living