

Summer Transition Education Program (STEP)

- ✓ Are you a person with a disability aged 16 to 21 years old?
  - ✓ Are you interested in learning about being more independent?
  - ✓ Are you interested in learning how to plan for your future by setting goals?
  - ✓ Are you curious about how to advocate for yourself?
- ✓ Are you interested in living on a college campus, eating in the dining halls and meeting other young people?

If you answered YES to all of these questions, you should consider applying for the Summer Transition Education Program offered by the Center for Disabilities Studies at the University of Delaware!

The 2009 session runs from July 12 – July 17

For an application, see your guidance or transition counselor, or visit the CDS website listed below. Cost for the weeklong program is $1500 and includes all meals, linens, classes, evening activities and materials.

You'll stay in the dorms at the University of Delaware, take classes in advocacy, career exploration, goal-setting and empowerment, learn about yourself, have fun and form relationships with others!

📞 Call Debbie Bain at 302.831.8733 📞
Visit www.udel.edu/cds/step.html