

Come join Darius Weems and his eleven-friend crew as they screen and discuss their award-winning film

“Darius Goes West”

March 16, 2009 at 7:30 pm

Gore Recital Hall, Roselle Center for the Arts
University of Delaware

Orchard Road between Winslow Road and Kent Way

Doors open at 7:00 pm. Admission is first come, first served.
Admission is free, but donations are appreciated.

Darius and the crew will be selling DVDs, t-shirts, and bumper stickers after the show. All proceeds will go to DMD research.

In the summer of 2005, Darius, a 15-year-old with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, and his best friends set off across America with the ultimate goal of getting his wheelchair customized on MTV’s “Pimp My Ride.” Along the way, they found joy, brotherhood, and the knowledge that life, even when imperfect, is always worth the ride.

Thanks to the University of Delaware Center for Disabilities Studies and Easter Seals Delaware and Maryland’s Eastern Shore for their financial support and for the support of the College of Human Services, Education and Public Policy. Partners include the Inter-Fraternity Council, Department of Human Development and Family Studies, and Best Buddies Delaware. Special thanks to the Courtyard Marriott Newark at the University of Delaware for providing accommodations for Darius and his crew.
For more information, call 302.831.8535.