

The Center for Disabilities Studies (CDS)/Delaware Assistive Technology Initiative (DATI) recently released a RFP to provide community-based assistive technology (AT) and durable medical equipment (DME) reutilization services for persons with disabilities throughout the state of Delaware.

For further information about this RFP, go to www.udel.edu/cds.

To assist potential bidders gain a clear understanding of the requirements for this service, we are holding a bidders conference at 9:30 am on August 18, 2010. The meeting will be held at the Center for Disabilities Studies, 461 Wyoming Rd., Newark DE 19716 at 9:30 am.

Attendance at this conference is mandatory for all applicants.

If you will attend this conference please confirm your attendance to:

Lisa Becker
Center for Disabilities Studies
University of Delaware
(302) 831-0629
lpbecker@udel.edu