

Participant Profile

Does this sound like you?

Are you:

- a young adult living with a disability?
- a resident of the State of Delaware?
- interested in exploring continuing education and employment?

And are you committed to:

- living more independently?
- working with others to pursue your goals?
- getting involved in your community?
- being responsible for your own decisions and actions?

If you answered YES to all of these questions, then the TOTAL LIFE PROJECT might be right for YOU!
