Chemical Inventory Specialist

University of Delaware

The University of Delaware is deploying a new chemical inventory system. UD is seeking qualified candidates to conduct chemical inventory within various laboratory environments to populate a new database. This will be a 6 month contract working 25-30 hours a week.

Qualifications:

- Masters degree in chemistry or Bachelors degree in chemistry with 5 years experience working in a research lab.
- Strong attention to detail
- Work with minimal supervision and is very task-oriented
- Established history of exhibiting good laboratory work practices.
- Possess strong computer skills
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills

If interested please send resume to Lori Koval (lorik@udel.edu)