Opportunity to Teach in China for a Year

The 3WYC, LLC Company is seeking two teachers to teach English to second graders in Shenzhen, China for a year (preferred), but a semester is acceptable. The teachers will deliver an English program developed by Dr. Susan Neuman from New York University. Training in the program will be provided.

Work Conditions: Teachers will work 40 hours per week, including week-end hours, with 2 days off each week. The maximum number of teaching hours is 24 hours/week. Chinese public holidays will be paid vacations.

Renumeration: 14,000 - 16,000 RMB per month, depending on experience

Accommodations will be provided at no cost to the teachers. Each teacher will receive one round trip flight between US and China in economy class. Accident and health insurance will be provided. The cost of a work visa will be covered. An airport pick-up service will be provided.

Job Responsibilities:
1. Perform the teaching role in the classroom
2. Classroom management
3. Prepare weekly plans, daily plans according to the requirements
4. Teach students English during the English class, English electives, corner time, outdoor activities time, etc.
5. Working with the team to develop the online courses and perform the online teaching, if necessary
6. Attending meetings, teacher training sessions and seminars
7. Organize activities (e.g. Halloween party, Christmas party) with Chinese teachers

Qualification for English Teachers:
1. A native speaker of English with excellent English language skills
2. Bachelor degree required
3. Teaching certification TESOL is preferred; training will be provided for those without this certification
4. Understanding and interest in the Chinese culture
5. Passionate about teaching and dedicated to student outcomes

Interested? Email Vukelich@udel.edu for additional details.