English Language Institute (ELI) Activities Coordinator, Language Adventure USA (LAUSA) Program: Summer 2018 |July 12 - August 12 (possibly extending further)

Description
The English Language Institute (ELI) is seeking an energetic and enthusiastic Activities Coordinator for its Language Adventure USA (LAUSA) program, a summer program for international teenagers. In addition to taking ELI courses to improve their English language skills, LAUSA students participate in a variety of afternoon and/or weekend cultural activities.

The LAUSA Activities Coordinator will be responsible for initiating and coordinating the program’s cultural activities, which may include sporting events, hikes, picnics, concerts, and games, and will serve as an escort for excursions to regional tourist attractions. The LAUSA Activities Coordinator will also be responsible for airport pick-ups and drop-offs of LAUSA students.

This is a part-time position, not exceeding 29 hours/wk.

Desired Qualifications
● Summer camp counselor experience preferred
● Undergraduate or graduate student
● Must be able to work afternoons and some weekends
● Must have a valid driver’s license
● Prior experience working with an international student population a plus
