ABOUT THE POSITION:
The Health Sciences Summer Camp is a 6-day residential camp at the University of Delaware for 30 high school students in 10th, 11th and 12th grades who are members of one or more groups (first-generation college, low-income, and underrepresented minorities). The program focuses on healthcare majors and career options. Students will live on the UD campus and learn and engage with university faculty and staff, researchers, graduate students and undergraduate mentors. Program dates are August 5, 2018 to August 10, 2018. Three Residential Camp Leaders are needed. Residential Camp Leaders’ primary charge is to provide supervision for students and ensure their safety and well-being.

DETAILS OF THE POSITION
• Residential Camp Leaders will work as part of a team, reporting to the Program Coordinators.
• Overnight stay required. Must reside with students in on-campus housing provided.
• Duties will entail:
  ▪ Supervise students during meals, free time, special events, and field trips.
  ▪ Work with students to keep them engaged and involved in activities during the program.
  ▪ Model positive behavior for students and ensure students act in accordance with University guidelines at all times.
  ▪ Serve as leaders, counselors, disciplinarians and role models throughout the program.
  ▪ Assist students with projects, basic computer usage, and closing program presentations.
  ▪ Follow all guidelines established by Program Coordinators to ensure student safety during all activities and trips.
  ▪ Other duties as assigned by Program Coordinators.
• Must participate in 2 days of training before camp begins.
• Location of employment will be on Main Campus and at the STAR Health Sciences Complex in Newark, DE.
• Compensation: Room, meals, field trips and activities plus a stipend of $750.

MINIMUM SKILLS & QUALIFICATIONS:
• Must be 21 or older.
• Bachelor’s degree required with 1+ years’ experience working in youth-based programs, preferably in a leadership role. Degree in school counseling, school psychology, social work, education, higher education administration, or other related discipline preferred.
• Excellent English language communication skills, both oral and written.
• Must enjoy spending structured and unstructured time with young people.
• Effective presentation and group facilitation skills. Ability to present effectively to small and large groups and to work productively with a wide range of constituencies in a diverse community.
• Ability to grasp, retain, and disseminate an extensive and varied body of information.
• Ability to exercise sound judgment and employ decision making skills under the guidance of the supervisor.
