

Dr. John Carlos: Fifty Years Later "We" Still Raising Our FistsTuesday, February 20 • 5:00 pm

Trabant Theatre

During the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City, Mexico, the image of John Carlos and Tommie Smith with black-gloved fists with bowed heads was seen around the world. Dr. Carlos has continued his life-long mission to improve human rights conditions and to increase changes for the success of our youth.

MLK Day of ServiceSaturday, February 24 • 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Perkins Student Center

To honor the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., UD students will have the opportunity to participate in a day of service and reflection in Wilmington, Newark, or Elkton, MD.

Pre-registration is required.Visit www.udel.edu/reslife/ for more information and registration.*NAACP Impact Leadership Seminar*Saturday, February 24 • 10:00 am – 3:00 pm

Embassy Suites – 654 S. College Avenue, Newark, DE

This conference will help students to develop their leadership abilities through opportunities to discuss issues that are relevant to communities that promote equity and social justice.

Registration available on the CBC website.Paul R. Jones Annual Lecture*Monday, February 26 • 5:30 pm

Memorial Hall Room 127

Professor Mabel O. Wilson from Columbia University will discuss "Notes on a Virginia Statehouse: Architecture & Race in Jefferson's America".

Gospelrama featuring The Walls GroupWednesday, February 28 • 7:00 pm

Mitchell Hall

Multi-Grammy nominated and Stellar Award winners, The Walls Group will headline this year's Gospelrama concert. The UD Gospel Choir will also be featured along with other invited guests.

Tickets available at UD box offices. Free for UD students (Limit 2); $5.00 for UD faculty and staff; $10.00 for the general public. For ticket information, call 302-831-4012.

BSU Community Meeting/Chop Up: Social ActivismWednesday, March 7 • 7:00 pm

Trabant Multipurpose Rooms

Join the Black Student Union as we prepare to celebrate our 50th anniversary this Fall. The first community meeting of the semester will engage students in a conversation about the BSU's legacy and the importance of community activism on campus and beyond.

Diversity and Inclusion Career ConferenceSaturday, March 10 • 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Trabant Student Center

Participate in hot topic conversations such as natural beauty, microaggressions, disclosure on religion, sexuality and diversity as well as mindfulness and self-care. This event is open to all students who are interested in the multi-faceted world of diversity in the workplace.

Sit-In and StudySunday, March 11 • 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Purnell Hall Rooms 116 & 118

In honor of the Little Rock Nine, the Sit-In and Study program seeks to create a supportive environment through a culture of study and community to improve the academic performance of African American and Latino/x students.

Pre-registration is required. Visit <http://bit.ly/cbc-sis18>.Women of Consequence*Thursday, March 15 • 7:00 pm

Gore Recital Hall – Roselle Center for the Arts

Despite barriers, women have found ways to influence politics and to have their voices heard. Through dance, poetry, music and drama, this program will share their stories, and promote discussion about freedom of expression and leadership for all women.

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the public. For program sponsors, additional details and calendar updates visit www.udel.edu/CBC/.

Featured ProgramBlack History Month Extravaganza featuring Kimberlé Crenshaw*Thursday, February 22 • 7:00 pm; Doors open at 6:15 pm

Trabant Multipurpose Rooms

Kimberlé Crenshaw, Professor of Law at UCLA and Columbia Law School, is a leading authority in the area of Civil Rights, Critical Race Theory, race and gender equality and intersectionality.

Intersectionality calls attention to the forces that create and sustain power and privilege and the multidimensionality of oppression. Crenshaw's talk will focus on gender and racial bias, weave in commentary about current events (such as Me Too, Say Her Name, Colin Kaepernick, and Immigration) and highlight the experiences of Black women and girls.

RSVP available online at <http://bit.ly/cbc-bhme18>.Presented by the Center for Black Culture

Co-sponsored by: the Cultural Programming Advisory Board, Black Student Union, Residence Life and Housing, Center for Counseling and Student Development, Office of Equity and Inclusion, Office of Human Resources, Vice Provost for Diversity, Center for the Study of Diversity, Africana Studies, Women and Gender Studies with support from the NAACP, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Black Graduate Student Association, SpeQtrum and Sisters on the Move.

List of EventsBlack Panther Movie Viewing - "Representation Matters"*Saturday, February 17 • 7:15 pm

Main Street Movies 5 - Newark, DE

First a comic in the 1960's, Black Panther is now the first Marvel movie to feature a black super hero; one who grapples with inner power and outward persecution to save his community and nation.