. . . and all its people
(in English, of course!)

This class will help you improve your listening and speaking skills in many ways:

- Listening to accents from all over the world
  - Learning about how different cultures (and your culture) communicate
- Role Playing and Conflict Resolution

We will also explore the role of English as an international language and look at some of the important ways that English is used internationally, such as

➤ Travel

➤ The United Nations

➤ The Nobel Peace Prize

And of course, we will work hard to

- Improve your pronunciation
- Improve your oral grammar
- Improve your listening comprehension, especially for natural speech with many accents
  - Develop your vocabulary, including slang and idioms
- Develop your presentation, negotiation, and persuasion skills
  - Develop your self-confidence in using English, even in difficult situations
