

Pre-MBA / CAP-MBA
Listening/Speaking Courses
Oral Business Case Studies
Entrepreneurship

at the English Language Institute

The Pre-MBA Program

- A sequence of four high-advanced (level VI) courses
- Designed to meet the demands of MBA programs
- Developed with the UD Lerner School of Business
- Conditional admission to UD, the University of Scranton, and Goldey-Beacom College
- Other students apply to and are accepted at some of the top business schools in the U.S.
- A proven track record of student success

Pre-MBA Courses

Oral Business Case Studies

Understand the case study model of teaching

Read and discuss Harvard case studies

Reading/Writing for Graduates

Read, summarize, and synthesize field-specific texts

Comprehensive review of grammar for academic writing

Entrepreneurship

Write and present a complete small business plan

GMAT Preparation

Language and test-taking skills to improve verbal GMAT scores

Course Sequence and Pre-Requisites: Listening/Speaking

- At level V, take Advanced Oral Business (AOB) OR EAP V
- Earn a B average in level V with no grade below a B-
- Take OBCS as your first pre-MBA LS course
- Take Entrepreneurship after OBCS
- You must be enrolled in a level VI RW class in order to take pre-MBA LS classes.
- You must reach a B+ in both listening and speaking in both OBCS and Entrepreneurship in order to meet the CAP-MBA LS requirements for graduation.

For more information

- About classes for graduate and pre-MBA students, please contact:
Karen Asenavage (kasen@udel.edu)
Nigel Caplan (nacaplan@udel.edu)

