

Port 316-010: Intensive Portuguese for Spanish Students, IIInstructor(s): Cynthia Schmidt-Cruz

Description: PORT 316 is a continuation of PORT 216. Students will continue to refine their command of the four language skills—listening, speaking, reading, and writing—and will complete the study of the basic grammatical structure of Brazilian Portuguese. As in PORT 216, there will be an emphasis on Brazilian culture through films, Power Point presentations, readings, and plenty of Brazilian music.

Once again, come prepared to groove to the rhythm and lyrics of samba and bossa nova, to speak lots of Portuguese, and to have a lot of fun learning a really cool language!

Prerequisite: PORT 216 or equivalentRestrictions: Not intended for native speakers of Portuguese

Satisfies: The PORT216-316 sequence fulfills the requirement for language 3 of the Three Language major. Also, PORT 316 is part of Option II of the Spanish major and can count toward the Latin American and Iberian Studies major and minor. Additionally, it is part of the Foreign Language Certificate in Brazilian Portuguese.
