

University of Delaware Honors Program
Honors Degree Checklist

Current
Semester

- Honors Degree applications are due by May 15th of your junior (third) year.
- Include classes you are taking this semester in your calculations.

Name: _____ SID: _____
Local Address: _____ Email: _____
Local Phone: _____ Projected graduation: _____
Major/Degree: _____ Major Advisor: _____

1. _____ Current g.p.a. (Must be at least 3.40 at graduation. Some departments have a specified minimum grade point within the major.)

2. _____ Honors credit hours. At least 30 Honors credit hours which meet the following criteria:
 - _____ (a) At least 12 Honors credits in the major department or in courses in collateral disciplines specifically required for the major.

 - _____ (b) An Interdisciplinary Honors Seminar or approved capstone experience to be completed in the last two semesters of a student's degree program. Approved Honors Degree seminar courses include UNIV 402 (thesis course), UNIV 490 (tutorial course), and approved Honors Degree seminars in the major.

Honors Degree Seminar or Capstone

 - _____ (c) _____ Number of additional Honors credits to reach 30 hours total.

 - _____ (d) At least 12 Honors credits at the 300-level or higher, not including the 1st-year Honors colloquia. (Courses counted for (a), (b), and (c) above can also be used here.)

3. _____ Any specific departmental requirements – see UD course catalog for the specific departmental requirements.

Honors Degree with Distinction

4. _____ Honors Thesis hours for an Honors Degree with Distinction. (Six credits distributed in UNIV 401-080 and UNIV 402-080). These can count toward the 30 total Honors credits.

5. _____ Thesis Defense for Honors Degree with Distinction.