Except as expressly modified or restricted by a specific provision or provisions of this Agreement, all managerial and administrative prerogatives and functions are retained and vested exclusively in the University, in accordance with its sole and exclusive judgment and discretion to: Manage and direct the work of employees; to demote, reprimand, suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline employees (without diminishing any rights provided by state law); to hire, promote and determine qualifications of employees; to assign and direct their work; to transfer, layoff, recall to work and retire employees; to set standards of productivity and the services to be rendered; to add or subtract shifts, as needed; to maintain the efficiency of operations; to determine the personnel, methods and means by which such operations are conducted; to determine the number and types of employees required; to assign such work to employees in accordance with the needs of the Employer as determined by the Employer and without regard to whether or not they are represented; to determine employee job duties; to promote or layoff employees by seniority with consideration only of their skills and abilities; to set the hours and shifts to be worked; to subcontract or contract out work covered by this Agreement; to control and regulate the use of facilities, equipment and other property of the Employer; to introduce new or improved equipment and operational methods; to determine the number, location and operation of departments, divisions and all other units of the Employer; to issue, amend or revise policies, rules, regulations and practices necessary to carry out these and all other managerial and administrative prerogatives; and to take whatever action that is otherwise necessary in the Employer’s judgment and discretion to administer the business and direct the Employer’s employees. The Employer’s failure to exercise any prerogative or function in a particular way shall not be considered a waiver of the Employer’s right to exercise such prerogative or function or preclude it from exercising the same in some other way, not in conflict with the express provisions of this Agreement.

Section 2. The listing of specific rights in this Article is not intended to be nor should be considered restrictive or a waiver of any of the rights of management not listed and not specifically surrendered herein, whether or not such rights have been exercised by the Employer in the past.
ARTICLE IV
LODGE RIGHTS, MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

Section 1. During the term of this Agreement, the University agrees to deduct monthly membership dues, proportionally each pay period, from the salaries due all members who individually and voluntarily give the University written authorization to do so on the "Authorization of Payroll Deduction of Membership Dues" supplied by the Lodge. The Lodge assumes the responsibility to obtain and deliver to the University said written authorization, or notices of revocation. The University shall forward such dues for the previous month’s salaries on or before the tenth day of each month to the Treasurer of the Lodge at an address furnished in writing to the University by the Lodge. The Lodge agrees to release and discharge the University of Delaware, its officers, agents, and employees from any and all liability whatsoever arising as a result of dues deduction. The Lodge assumes full responsibility for the disposition of monies once they have been remitted to the Treasurer of the Lodge as set forth above. The Lodge shall indemnify and hold University harmless from any liability incurred herein including attorney fees.

Section 2. All employees shall have the right to join or refrain from joining the Lodge.

Subject to the withdrawal provision in this section, any employee who is a member of the Lodge or who becomes a member of the Lodge shall remain a member in good standing as a condition of employment for the duration of this Agreement and shall tender to the Lodge each month of employment an amount equal to the monthly dues charged by the Lodge to all employees who are members of the Lodge. Notwithstanding the above, such member on an annual basis may terminate his/her membership by written notice to the Lodge and to the University within the thirty (30) calendar day period preceding each July 1.

Section 3. The Lodge, its officers, and members shall not engage in union activities, hold meetings on University property, or utilize university facilities in any way that interferes with or interrupts normal University operations or the obligations and duties of bargaining unit members as employees.

Section 4. The Lodge may request use of University space and facilities for proper activities related to its position as the recognized representative of the full-time voting members. Such request shall not be unreasonably denied. The Lodge shall pay reasonable costs for the use of space, facilities, and equipment if necessary. Typically this will amount to one evening per month, however, during periods of increased activity, such as preparing for negotiations, the frequency of meetings may increase to two (2) to three (3) meetings per month.

Section 5. The Lodge shall be entitled to reasonable use of campus postal system, in accordance with University procedures. The Lodge agrees to limit its use of material directly related to its function as collective bargaining agent, and agrees further that the material it distributes by campus mail will not violate reasonable standards of propriety with respect to the language employed.

Section 6. The University agrees to provide one (1) bulletin board to be utilized solely by the Lodge to post notices relating to Lodge business in the Newark Campus headquarters where it will be visible to all members of the unit regardless of assignment. Material placed on the Bulletin Board shall be signed by a union official and a copy shall be provided to the Chief of Police. Said material shall not be inflammatory nor shall it be derogatory to the University, its employees or students.

Section 7. The University agrees to provide, at no cost to the Lodge or its members, a complete copy of this Agreement for all members.

Section 8. The University agrees to make available to each new member a copy of this Agreement and a copy of the “Authorization of Payroll Deduction of Membership Dues” form.

Section 9. The University agrees to allow members of the Lodge to use vacation leave to prepare for and attend local, state and national meetings of the FOP provided that it is scheduled in accordance with Department Vacation schedules.

Section 10. When an employee is hired into a position covered by this Agreement, the Lodge shall be permitted thirty (30) minutes to meet with the employee as part of the employee’s orientation in order to explain the contract provisions.

Section 11. The bargaining unit will be provided with ten (10) days release time in a contract year. The release time would be available for such events as the State or National FOP Conference Training or other FOP functions but would not be available to use to attend local FOP monthly meetings. The FOP may carry over up to five (5) unused release days for a total of fifteen (15) days in any year.

The Lodge and the University subscribe to the principle that any and all differences under this Agreement be resolved by peaceful and legal means without interruption of the department services. The Lodge, therefore, agrees that neither it nor any of its officers, agents, employees, or members will instigate, engage in, support or condone any strike, sympathy strike, slow down, picketing or hand billing directed against the University, work stoppage, or other concerted refusal to perform work by any employee in the bargaining unit during the life of this Agreement. ARTICLE VI
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Should an employee or the Lodge assert that a violation of the Agreement has occurred, they must utilize the following procedure to adjudicate the matter.

A grievance is defined as a claim that a term or provision of the Agreement has been violated. If an employee asserts a grievance, he/she shall discuss the matter informally with the supervisor.

Step 1: If the issue is not resolved informally, then the matter shall be reduced to writing and submitted to the Chief within fifteen (15) calendar days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance or from when the grievant knew or should have known of the event giving rise to the grievance. The written grievance, which will not be considered unless signed by an FOP representative shall state the action alleged to violate the contract, the contract provision violated and the relief requested. The Chief or designee shall meet with the grievant and a Lodge representative within five (5) calendar days. The Chief or designee shall respond to the grievance in writing within five (5) calendar days.

Step 2: Upon receipt of the Step 1 answer, or at the expiration of the time for receiving the Step 1 answer, the grievant shall have ten (10) calendar days to appeal the answer in writing to the Chief Human Resource Officer. Upon receipt of the appeal, the Chief Human Resource Officer or his designee shall meet with the grievant and a Lodge representative within fifteen (15) calendar days. He shall provide a written answer to the appeal within five (5) calendar days of the meeting.

Step 3: Within twenty (20) calendar days of receipt of the Step 2 answer or upon the expiration of the time for receiving the Step 2 answer, the Lodge may appeal the matter to arbitration by sending written notification to the Chief Human Resource Officer of its intent to proceed to arbitration. If the parties cannot agree on the selection of an arbitrator within ten (10) calendar days thereafter, then the Lodge shall file a written request for arbitration with the American Arbitration Association in Philadelphia in accordance with its rules for voluntary labor arbitration.
The costs of the Association's fees and of the arbitrator shall be divided between the University and the Lodge. The arbitrator shall have access to all written statements and documents pertaining to the appeal. The grievant may be represented at arbitration by an FOP representative of his choice.

In no event shall the arbitrator have any authority to modify, amend, or alter any terms or conditions of this Agreement and the arbitrator shall be bound by any submission or stipulation jointly agreed upon by the parties. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding upon the parties.

Failure of the grievant or Lodge to file an appeal within the time limits of these provisions shall constitute a final and binding resolution of the grievance; however, the parties may mutually agree to extend the time limits herein.

A grievance by the Lodge alleging that its rights under the contract have been violated shall be filed at Step 2.

The grievant and a Lodge representative shall have the right to attend all Step meetings conducted herein.

ARTICLE VII

BENEFITS AND LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Section 1. The University shall provide for employees and retirees covered herein the same benefits, including but not limited to health insurance, vacation, sick leave, etc., provided for salaried employees and retirees under the same terms, conditions and co-pays as provided to salaried employees. This shall include any changes to, deletions or additions to the benefits provided by the University to salaried staff.

Section 2. Jury Duty - The University will grant leaves of absence with pay from work in conjunction with University policy to employees for time spent on jury duty. Night shift employees called to jury duty who normally would not be expected to work while on jury duty shall be similarly compensated. Employees who are dismissed from jury duty or released as witnesses will be expected to return to work for the balance of their scheduled workday.

Section 3. Bereavement Leave - The University will provide a member with five (5) days leave for the death of an immediate family member as administered and defined by the University. One day leave will be granted for the death of a non-immediate family member as administered and defined by the University. The University, based upon unusual circumstances, may grant additional time for travel time to services or an employee may utilize vacation in conjunction with bereavement leave. An employee who is already on a paid or unpaid leave during the death of a relative will not receive bereavement leave. A paid leave, for purposes of this provision, shall include long term illness/disability, long-term sick leave, holiday leave, and workers' compensation disability. It shall not include vacation leave and regular sick leave.

Section 4. Leave of Absence - An employee desiring a personal leave of absence without pay for personal, urgent and compelling reasons must complete and sign a personal leave of absence request form and submit it to the appropriate supervisor for approval by the Chief of Police. Personnel on leaves of absence without pay may continue health care coverage at their own expense, even though the University paid for their benefits while actively employed. All requests to continue health care insurance coverage will be subject to the legal and contractual provisions of the programs. University shall have complete discretion to grant or deny leave. The University will not unreasonably deny requests.
Section 5. The University will provide a tuition remission program for individuals covered under this agreement and their respective families and dependents. A total of two family members, including dependent children and the spouse of a member, may each take seventeen (17) credit hours at no charge if enrolled as a full time matriculated undergraduate student. This benefit shall apply to seventeen (17) credit hours in one semester and may not be divided between semesters. Students who enroll at the University as a result of the tuition remission program shall not be counted for purposes of calculating the maximum ratio in any University enrollment cap. Students who enroll under this program shall be eligible for University housing on a space-available basis after considering the needs of enrolled students paying regular tuition.

Bargaining unit member's family or dependents may enroll in two academic credit courses without payment of fees during each semester and each summer and winter session. Enrollment in academic credit courses involved with study trips or enrollment in non-credit courses will be permitted only if such enrollment does not displace a paying student from the class or add appreciable costs to the University.

The parties agree that the benefit clauses described in section 5 herein are identical to such educational benefit and course fee waivers provided by the University to all non-exempt employees. The parties agree that these benefits are subject to change, alteration or elimination by the University without bargaining with the FOP provided such change applies to all similarly situated salaried employees.

Section 6. Mandatory Retirement. Effective July 1, 2015 and thereafter, officers shall be required to retire after attaining either thirty-two (32) years of service or age sixty (60), whichever occurs first. Retirement shall occur no later than ninety (90) days following age sixty (60) or thirty-two (32) years of service.

Section 7. University-Sponsored Benefits. Employees who retire after twenty-five (25) years of service but who have not reached age fifty-five (55) will receive the same University sponsored benefits as Employees who retire with thirty (30) years of service.
ARTICLE VIII

OVERTIME AND SPECIALTY PAY

Section 1. Overtime. Except as modified by Article XIV, Employees will be paid time and one-half for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week. The employee may request that he/she be permitted to substitute compensatory time for the overtime pay provided it does not exceed the maximum compensation time set by the department. Requests may be denied by the Department. If the request is granted, compensatory time must be used and scheduled in accordance with Department policy.

Section 2. Court Time. Where an employee’s duties require him/her to testify in Court during non-working time, the employee will be paid the greater of three (3) hours of pay or actual time worked at the appropriate rate of pay. Said minimum shall count towards hours worked. This guarantee is not intended to reduce an employee’s normal work week.

Section 3. Shift Premium. The annual differential for employees who either work permanent second and/or third shifts or who rotate through such shifts shall be $2,000.

Should an employee work first shift for part of the year, the shift differential shall be pro-rated.

The University agrees that employees who work an other than day shift rotation shall be entitled to shift differential when they are assigned to the standard rotating schedule or the majority of their shift(s) falls outside the defined day shift hours (0800-1700); shift differential shall be pro-rated accordingly.

Section 4. Call-In Pay. An employee reporting to work at his/her assigned campus at the employer’s request for emergency duty for work which the employee was not notified in advance and which is not contiguous with the employee’s work shift shall be paid a minimum of four (4) hours’ pay or actual time worked at the appropriate rate, whichever is greater.

In addition to these days, the University will grant members of the Lodge any "special holiday" as determined by the administration of the University.

To be eligible for Holiday Pay, the employee, unless excused by the University, must work his last scheduled workday before the Holiday and his first scheduled workday after the Holiday. In addition, the employee must work the Holiday if scheduled.

The Holiday shall be the actual day of the Holiday, weekends notwithstanding. Should an employee's shift begin at 11:00 p.m., the shift wherein the majority of hours fall within the Holiday shall be considered the Holiday shift. All members covered under this agreement assigned to the rotating patrol schedule shall be paid holiday pay on the actual day of the holiday as mentioned above. All members covered under this Agreement assigned to a week-day administrative assignment shall be paid holiday pay for the date the University recognizes the holiday.

Employees who are not scheduled to work on the Holiday shall receive eight (8) hours of pay for the Holiday. Employees who work on the Holiday shall receive double time for the hours worked. This provision is effective upon ratification.

Section 6. Military Leave. Military Leave shall meet the requirements of state and federal law. Employees in the National Guard or Reserve shall be paid for two-week annual duty as per University policy. Employees must provide a copy of their orders to the Department as soon as received.

Section 8. Liability Insurance. The University acknowledges that employees are covered by University Insurance for acts performed within the scope of their employment.

Section 9. Personal Protection Equipment. The University will provide the members of the Unit with all personal protective equipment including but not limited to soft body armor, police baton and chemical or defensive spray. Soft body armor would be replaced as per Department policy. The Department agrees to meet and discuss with the Lodge concerning development or modification of this policy.
Section 10. Outside Employment. Subject to the approval of the Chief, employees covered by this Agreement may engage in outside employment which does not interfere with the employees’ performance of their duties, including overtime or mandatory special events, and which does not involve University property, facilities, equipment, authority or name.

Mandatory special events are those designated by the Chief and include graduation, homecoming, and night football games. Employees covered by the Agreement shall be required to work such mandatory events unless excused by the Chief for exigent reasons. If an employee was given approved vacation for a day which is a mandatory event, it will not normally be cancelled unless the mandatory event is caused by an emergency.

Section 11. The University will supply one pair of work boots or shoes per year.

Section 12. Officers who exit the Academy after June 30, 2008 shall be required to have a Bachelor’s Degree in order to be eligible for promotion to Sergeant.

The parties, for the lifetime of this Agreement, each agree that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject matter referred to or not referred to or governed by this Agreement, unless the University and the Lodge mutually agree to alter, amend, supplement, enlarge or modify any of its provisions.
ARTICLE XI

PRECEDENCE OF LAWS

In the event any provision of this Agreement, in whole or in part, is declared to be illegal, void or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction or any administrative agency having jurisdiction, all of the other terms, conditions and provisions of this agreement shall remain in full force and effect to the same extent as if that provision had never been incorporated in this Agreement, and in such event the remainder of this Agreement shall continue to be binding upon the parties hereto.

ARTICLE XIV

WAGES

Minimum wage rates are set forth herein in Article XVI. Except as provided in Article XVI, wages, including starting rate, shall not increase except by agreement between the parties.

Section 1. The University and the Union agree that the University has adopted a work period in accordance with Section 7(k) of the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") and the University's overtime pay obligations shall be determined in accordance with Section 7(k), 29 U.S.C. §207(k).

Section 2. The payment of overtime to any officer in a manner more generous than that required by FLSA Section 7(k) shall not be construed as a waiver by the University of its adoption of a Section 7(k) work period arrangement for purposes of the University's obligations under the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Section 3. The FOP and the University agree that due to varying responsibilities and duties, it is necessary for covered employees in different units to work a variety of shift schedules. These schedules include, but are not limited to:

- a "traditional" forty (40) hour work week comprised of five (5) consecutive eight (8) hour shifts on weekdays,
- flexible schedules totaling forty (40) scheduled hours per week, and
- a fixed rotation schedule totaling one hundred and sixty-one (161) hours in a twenty-eight (28) day period comprised of shifts of eleven and one-half (11.5) hours of paid time inclusive of a one-half (1/2) hour paid meal period plus an additional one-half (1/2) hour unpaid meal period.

Section 4. The FOP and the University acknowledge that the above described fixed rotation schedule comprised of shifts that constitute eleven and one half (11.5) hours of paid time, results in employees assigned to this schedule being regularly scheduled for two-thousand and ninety-three (2093) hours per year, in excess of two-thousand and eighty (2080) hours per year worked by employees on a forty (40) hour per week schedule. The parties agree that, to account for the additional thirteen (13) hours, all employees working this schedule shall be credited with compensatory time as follows:

Thirteen (13) hours of compensatory time will be credited to employees on June 30th after the implementation of the schedule and every June 30th thereafter. Employees who transfer to different shift schedules throughout the year will have their thirteen hour compensatory time allotment appropriately pro-rated.

Section 5. The parties agree that the premium rate of time and one-half the employee’s regular base rate of pay shall be paid for all duty hours performed in excess of the employee’s regularly scheduled shift on a daily basis, regardless of an employee’s assigned schedule.

This shall constitute a modification of Article VIII, Section 1.

Section 6. The FOP and the University agree that as long as employees are working the shifts specified in this Agreement which constitute a twenty-eight (28) day rotation the parties agree that overtime would be paid to officers for all hours worked in excess of one hundred seventy (170) hours in a twenty-eight (28) day rotation or in excess of the regularly-scheduled shift on a daily basis.

Either party desiring to modify, amend or terminate the Agreement shall give to the other party one hundred twenty (120) days’ written notification of its intent to do so prior to June 30, 2016.      Fitness Program

Dear Ron:

This will confirm the representations concerning the fitness program made by the University to the FOP during collective bargaining negotiations. While the University will not agree to negotiate the terms and conditions of the program, it has agreed to the following limitations through June 30, 2016:

1.  The Cooper Institute standards shall be utilized.

2.  The passing score of 20th percentile will remain in effect through December 31, 2014. The Department may increase the passing score by up to ten (10) percentage points to the 30th percentile effective January 1, 2015. The Department shall provide the FOP sixty (60) days' notice of said change.

3.  The Department may increase the passing rate by up to five (5) percentage points effective June 30, 2016. The Department will provide sixty (60) days' notice to the FOP of said change.

4.  Should the Chief consider other changes to the requirements of the Fitness Program, the FOP leadership will participate with the Chief concerning any proposed changes. However, the Chief's decision shall be final and binding.

Sincerely,

Alfred J. D'Angelo, Jr.

Re: U/D and FOP Lodge #7
Fitness Program and Mandatory Retirement

Dear Ron:

This letter will confirm that the University Fitness Policy, including the increases in passing scores to the fitness program as contained in my letter to you dated October 16, 2013 applies to all sworn officers of the Department. With respect to the mandatory retirement program set forth in paragraph no. 2 of the Memorandum of Agreement between the University and the FOP, the University will promulgate and implement a mandatory retirement policy consistent with Article VII, Section 6 which shall apply to all sworn officers of the Department. Should either of those policies not be adopted and maintained for all sworn officers, the policy would not be applicable to the bargaining unit.

Sincerely,

Alfred J. D’Angelo, Jr.
