

John C. Bean

"Helping Students Achieve Disciplinary Expertise:
The Role of Writing in University Outcomes Assessment"

(Public lecture)

Thursday, October 5, 2006

4:00-5:30 PM

324 Gore Hall

University of Delaware, Newark Campus

"Promoting Critical Thinking and Inquiry through Writing-Across-the-Curriculum"

(ITUE workshop – by Registration*)

Friday, October 6, 2006

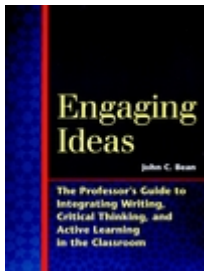

1:00 – 3:30 PM

236 Alison Hall

University of Delaware, Newark, Campus

---

The Writing Program in the Department of English is pleased to announce that John C. Bean, a national leader in Writing Across the Curriculum, will offer a public lecture and ITUE workshop at UD on October 5th and 6th.

Best known as the author of the groundbreaking book, Engaging Ideas: The Professor's Guide to Integrating Writing, Critical Thinking and Active Learning in the Classroom, and as a co-author of The Allyn and Bacon Guide to Writing, Professor Bean has published widely on writing in the disciplines and the relationship of assessment and writing across the university.

By way of introduction to his scholarship, the link below connects to an essay particularly germane to University of Delaware's interests, Bean's "Transforming WAC through a Discourse-Based Approach to University Outcomes Assessment":

<http://wac.colostate.edu/journal/>

Professor Bean's visit is sponsored by the Department of English, the University Writing Center, the Institute for Transforming Undergraduate Education, and Allyn and Bacon / Longman Publishers.

The lecture is free and open to the public; enrollment in the workshop is limited, however, and individuals interested attending it should register* by contacting Carolyn Clark at cclark@udel.edu.