

Guillermina Gonzalez

contactguille@comcast.net

The MALS program has been a magnificent intellectual journey that has expanded internal horizons. The MALS program is the opportunity to learn and enjoy discussion with tremendous substance. You never get bored in a MALS class as long as you are willing to explore different ways of thinking!

This has been a refreshing, learning environment! Bringing a cup of coffee with me to every class was a must to fully enjoy connecting or disagreeing in philosophical discussions where learning was a natural consequence of the process.

The MALS program was a perfect intellectual match to support my own vision of cultural inclusion and building bridges of understanding and communication between communities. My current position as Executive Director of Voices Without Borders, Inc., a not-for-profit organization with the mission to move Latinos forward, allows me to be an effective connector for Delaware's increasingly diverse population. I believe the MALS program helped me to think out of the box and be able to accomplish results but I also realize that an intellectual journey for an inquisitive mind never ends...