

On the Electric Properties of the Oxide-Water Interface.

G.J. HENDRICKS, Z.Z. ZHANG* and D.L. SPARKS, Univ. of Delaware.

The electric potentials of the Al-oxide-water interface at different pH values were determined by measuring negative adsorption of coions. These results and those obtained from charge density measurements via titration analyses were used to characterize the electric properties of the oxide-water interface.

Z.Z. Zhang, (302) 451-1595