

- A Great Opportunity to enhance your American History content knowledge.
- Earn inservice or graduate credits.
- Develop new strategies for teaching American History.
- Learn how to address and meet Delaware Social Studies Content Standards.
- Receive a $250 stipend plus materials for each workshop
- Enjoy free overnight stays at the Virden Center in Lewes.

MEET THE PROGRAM STAFF

Barry Joyce, Assistant Professor, is the also Workshop Director and Director of the Social Studies Secondary Education program at the University of Delaware. He received his Ph.D. in American History from the University of California, Riverside, in 1995. He teaches courses on the American West & Native American History in addition to his work in Secondary Education.

Francis J. O'Malley, Assessment Director is also the director of the Delaware Social Studies Education Project (DSSEP) and Curriculum Specialist for the Democracy Project. He received his Masters of Instruction from UD in 2000. A James Madison Fellow, he was UD's 1995 History Teacher of the Year and Delaware's 1997 State Teacher of the Year. He is a specialist in curriculum and professional development and also teaches history methods.

For more information: grant-history@udel.edu
Visit our website:
www.udel.edu/teachushistory

To enroll in the Teaching U.S. History program, complete the enclosed application by September 30, 2004 to:

*Kathy DeFoe, DCTE
015 Willard Hall, University of Delaware
Newark, DE 19716*

TEACHING AMERICAN HISTORY:

WORKSHOPS FOR MIDDLE & HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

TEACHING AMERICAN HISTORY WORKSHOPS

The “Teaching American History Workshops” will increase and enhance American History content knowledge for both teachers and students. Come develop new strategies for teaching history in your classroom. The three-year grant from the U.S. Department of Education’s Teaching American History program creates a partnership between the University of Delaware, Delaware school districts and various museums and historical societies. Each workshop is designed to address topics included in your school curriculum.

HIGH SCHOOL: THE AMERICAN WEST

November 12-13, 2004
Instructor: Dr. Barry Joyce
Museum Partner: to be arranged

THE FABULOUS 50’S (1950’S)

February 4 – 5, 2005
Instructor: Dr. David Suisman
Museum Partner: tba

LAND WARS IN ASIA: KOREAN & VIETNAM WARS

April 22 – 23, 2005
Instructor: tba
Museum Partner: tba

MIDDLE SCHOOL: DAILY LIFE IN COLONIAL AMERICA

December 3 - 4, 2004
Instructor: Dr. Brooke Hunter
Museum Partner: tba

THE CREATION OF THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION

March 4 – 5, 2005
Instructor: Dr. Carol Berkin
Museum Partner: tba

AMERICAN WESTWARD EXPANSION

May 13 - 14, 2005
Instructor: Dr. Barry Joyce
Museum Partner: tba

MEET THE WORKSHOP INSTRUCTORS

Barry Joyce is an Associate Professor of History and Coordinator of the Social Studies Secondary Education program at the University of Delaware. He received his Ph.D. in American History from the University of California, Riverside, in 1995. He teaches courses on the American West & Native American History in addition to his work in Secondary Education.

Brooke Hunter teaches American History including courses on the American Revolution, Native Americans, and the environment at Rider University. Her research concentrates on the intersection of economic, cultural, and ecological revolutions in early America.

Carol Berkin received her B.A. from Barnard College and her M.A. and Ph.D. from Columbia University where she won the Bancroft Dissertation Award. She is a professor of history at Baruch College and deputy chair of the department of history at the Graduate Center. She teaches early American and women’s history.

David Suisman is an Assistant Professor of History at the University of Delaware. He received his Ph.D. at Columbia University in 2002. He has published numerous articles on music and popular culture in 20th century America. His upcoming books include The Sound of Money: The Commercial Revolution in American Music and The Social History of American Popular Music: A Reader.