

T W Fraser Russell Symposium

August 24, 2009
John M. Clayton Hall

Dear Friends of Fraser,

You are cordially invited to the T.W. Fraser Russell Symposium on Monday, August 24, 2009 at Clayton Hall on the UD Campus. This Symposium celebrates the distinguished career and accomplishments of T.W. Fraser Russell who is a great friend and colleague to us all. Please note that the Symposium, organized by Professor Prasad Dhurjati on behalf of the Department of Chemical Engineering, is being offered at no cost to you.

For your information please see the following:

- * Symposium schedule: <http://www.che.udel.edu/pdf/TwfrProgram.pdf>.
- * Symposium registration: <http://www.che.udel.edu/twfrForm.html>.

To recognize Dr. Russell and his dedication to teaching excellence, a new endowment fund is being created: <https://www.che.udel.edu/twfrendow.html>. I hope you will participate. Even if you can't come to the Symposium, I hope that you'll support the Fraser Russell endowment with a contribution; all donors will be recognized in the Symposium program. Please forward this message to anyone who may be interested.

Sincerely,

Norman J. Wagner
Alvin B. and Julia O. Stiles Professor and Chairperson
Department of Chemical Engineering
