

Fifth Regional Undergraduate Student Research Conference

THEME:

Confronting Contemporary Issues in Undergraduate Learning

Date: Friday, March 6, 2015

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Location: MLK Student Center, Delaware State University, Dover Campus

Delaware State University—in collaboration with the University of Delaware and The Lincoln University—extends a call for papers for the Fifth Regional Undergraduate Student Research Conference. Our theme is “Confronting Contemporary Issues in Undergraduate Learning.” This broadly conceived theme allows students to present the innovative and creative research work they are doing on their campuses in their respective disciplines. Students engaged in interdisciplinary work are also encouraged to present. Proposals can be for individual papers or complete panels or posters that focus on any aspect of the humanities, technologies, social sciences, natural sciences, education, communications, gender and sexuality, Africa and the Diaspora, Ethnic and Cultural Studies, Feminist and Black Feminist Theory, diversity, labor, and community engagement.

Awards will be presented to the best presenters at the end of the conference.

Deadline: January 19, 2015

The undergraduate student proposal should be submitted electronically and must include submitter’s name; faculty adviser’s name; title of the paper, panel, roundtable, or poster; and an abstract of approximately 150 words. The proposal should also include the institutional affiliation of each presenter, phone number, and email address. Submit proposals by January 19, 2015 to:

COORDINATORS

Delaware State University

Dr. Andrew Blake, Associate Professor of English, ablake@desu.edu

Dr. A. Myrna Nurse, Associate Professor of English, mnurse@desu.edu

University of Delaware

Dr. Regina Sims Wright, Assistant Professor, School of Nursing, rsims@udel.edu

Lincoln University

Dr. Emmanuel Babatunde, Chair and Professor of Anthropology, babatunde@lincoln.edu

Dr. Robert Millette, Professor of Sociology, millette@lincoln.edu

Non-presenters who wish to pre-register should contact one of the coordinators listed above.