

POLICY: ACCESSING MEALS FOR AN ILL STUDENT

DATE: January 7, 2015

A student’s University ID Card must be presented for a Dining Services transaction. The University ID Card is not transferable and may only be used by the person to whom it is issued.

An exception to this would be during a serious illness. An ill student may arrange to have a meal prepared at one of the dining halls to be picked up by a roommate or friend.

To order a meal, the ill student must contact the Dining Hall manager to request a boxed meal. The following information must be provided:

- Ill student’s name, residence and telephone number;
  - Identify any special needs regarding allergies, etc.
  - Identify preferences from the menu.
- Name and telephone number of the student responsible to pick up the meal.
- Pick up date(s) and time(s).
- Method of payment, i.e. meal, points or FLEX.

The student picking up the boxed meal will need to present:

- Valid University ID Card
- A note signed by the ill student to approve pick up of a meal.
- The ill student’s University ID Card

The charge will be as follows:

- One meal will be deducted from weekly allotment, including for those ordered but not picked up.
- Points or FLEX:
  - Breakfast: $7.70
  - Lunch: $10.95
  - Dinner: $13.25
  - Brunch: $11.30
