

Spin your dreams into reality.

Webinar will include:

How a UD Blue Hen took what he learned in the classroom and built his future.

Ways to use your current networks as a resource to build your career.

The opportunity to discover the difference between being self-employed and an entrepreneur.

Connect and ask questions with DJ Amaze.

Join us for a free webinar with UD Alumni Dave Mays '02

David "Amaze" Mays is a DJ, Recording Artist, Producer, Instructor, and businessman. He operates Dj Amaze, LLC and Icon DJ's & Promotions, a multi operational Dj & Special events promotion company which offers Djs, Music Technology Workshops, Sound services, Lighting and Photobooth. Amaze is a graduate of University of Delaware with a B.A. in Biology and values the importance of education.

Amaze is a seasoned Spring Break veteran touring Spring Break in various locales around the world and has been featured on many radio stations. Amaze takes an active role in the education and enrichment of the youth and the community. He currently teaches DJ & Music Technology Class at: Delaware Technical and Community College, University of Delaware Special Programs, World Cafe Live, and brings specials workshops to the community groups that would like to learn about Dj'ing and Music Technology in a classroom environment.

December 1, 2014
12:00pm-1:00pm

<http://connect20305708.adobeconnect.com/djamazewebinar/>

Co-sponsored by: The Office of Alumni Relations, UDSAA,
UD Career Services Center and The Horn Program in Entrepreneurship