

Alumni Weekend

JUNE 6–8, 2014

Register now:
www.udel.edu/AlumniWeekend

Dear Blue Hens and Friends,

Thank you to those who have joined us at past Alumni Weekend events. With your support, Alumni Weekend has experienced explosive growth, from 1,700 attendees to over 5,300 in just five years! If you haven't had the opportunity to return home to UD for Alumni Weekend, the UD community invites you to make this one your first. If you have attended Alumni Weekend in the past, we look forward to seeing you again this year and encourage you to invite your fellow alumni and friends to join you. UD alumni from across the country and around the world attend Alumni Weekend, so it will not only be a wonderful opportunity to connect with fellow Blue Hens and friends of all ages, but it will also be a great chance to expand your social and professional network.

Please continue reading to learn more about the exciting programming and activities offered throughout the weekend, and be on the lookout for our email updates. Whether you visit your college reception, attend an affinity reunion, run in the 5K or attend an educational panel, there is something offered for all ages and interests.

All Blue Hens, families, friends, faculty, staff and students are invited to reunite at UD to continue to make memories that will last a lifetime, so don't miss out on all the fun.

Register today at www.udel.edu/AlumniWeekend. Hope to see you there!

All the best,

Cindy Campanella '84
Assistant Vice President, Office of Alumni Relations
University of Delaware

Alumni Relations and the University of Delaware are pleased to recognize those Alumni Weekend 2014 sponsors who have helped make this event the best it can be:

YOUR LOGO HERE! It's not too late to underwrite programs during Alumni Weekend! Give your business exposure to 5,300 Blue Hens while supporting your alma mater. Sponsorships offered from $1,000 to $50,000, including opportunities to name tents & events that make marketing sense! Contact Barb Carrig at 302-831-2104 or bcarrig@udel.edu by May 15.

Stay at UD

The newly built Gilbert and Redding halls are now open for alumni during the weekend!

Blue Hens attending Alumni Weekend 2014 not only have the chance to return to campus for a weekend of fun and engaging activities, but they also have the opportunity to feel nostalgic and spend the night in a dorm once again.

Alumni have the option to stay at Laird Campus, located on the site of the former Pencader Residence Halls, or on East Campus. Laird Campus dorms are air conditioned, smoke-free and only a fifteen-minute walk to The Green. You have the option of a double- or single-room suite, each with a connecting bath. The East Campus dorms, newly constructed for the 2013–2014 school year, include double rooms with one hallway bathroom. The new East Campus dorms also have air conditioning, are smoke-free and are a five-minute walk to The South Green.

Don't feel like bringing your bedding with you? Linen packages are available for $25 and can be picked up upon your arrival. Please note that pillows and blankets will no longer be included in the rooms upon arrival, but will be available as part of the linen package.

Looking to upgrade your accommodations? Visit www.udel.edu/AlumniWeekend for various hotel options and information about getting to campus.

Visit www.udel.edu/AlumniWeekend for more information about staying in the dorms.

Mug Night Dela•bration

Friday, 8–11 p.m.

(Rain date: Saturday, June 7)

The Green, $45

Mug Night is back and it's a Dela•bration! Join thousands of Blue Hens under two tents on The North and South Greens for an evening of friends, food, dancing and drinks. Live music will be provided by Love Seed Mama Jump and Kristen and The Noise. All attendees receive a commemorative Alumni Weekend mug sponsored by Deer Park Tavern. Be sure not to miss out on this once-a-year party!

“The Buzz on Beekeeping and Honey” hosted by the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources

11 a.m.–noon

UD Apiary, South Campus

The UD apiary is home to over 20 beehives with millions of resident honeybees playing an active part in the teaching, research and outreach programs in the Department of Entomology and Wildlife Ecology. While the bees are really gentle this time of year, veils and other protective equipment will be provided for adventurous participants who want to go “hands-on.” Shuttles will be making multiple trips from Gore Hall to South Campus before and after the event.

Inaugural RA Alumni Association Kick-Off

11 a.m.–1 p.m.
Redding Hall Lounge, $5

Join us for the first annual Residence Life & Housing Alumni event! Come connect with former staff members, learn about new initiatives the department is working on, tour your old residence hall, see the new department offices and learn how to become a mentor for a current staff member. We will also share how you can play a part in shaping the newly formed RA Alumni Association. Help us make this an event to remember and see what the RA Alumni Association has in store for you!

Student Alumni Ambassador/Spirit Ambassador Reunion
11 a.m.–1 p.m.
Klondike Kate’s (158 E. Main St.), 2nd Floor, $5

Remember the moment when you walked out onto Tubby Raymond Field and heard your name spoken over the loudspeaker? Or a moment where you connected with an alum at a special event? Meet at Kate’s to celebrate over brunch and reconnect with former and current Student Alumni Ambassadors and Spirit Ambassadors. Learn about what the group is doing today and share with them stories of the past.

Get the Inside Scoop on the UDairy Creamery

11 a.m.–noon, 1–2 p.m., 3–4 p.m.
UDairy Creamery, $5

Visit the UDairy Creamery for a behind-the-scenes tour of the store and processing facility. Learn how ice cream is made—from the cow all the way to the cone, and see the making of a batch! Not only are tastings included, but every registered guest will take home a pint of the Dela-bration flavor. Register fast as this is the only day of the year tours are offered. Shuttles will be making multiple trips from Gore Hall to South Campus before and after each tour.

Lunch with the UD Mascots

Reunions and Friends

Blue Hen Bash

Live from Newark... It's Blue Hen Bash! Request your favorite song from the dueling piano players. All Blue Hens are invited to reconnect with fellow classmates. Bring yourself and bring your friends! A wide variety of food selections from Perkins Lounge will be available and two drink tickets are included. Registration is open in Perkins Student Center from 4–6 p.m. $27 per person.

'70s Experience on Central Campus

5–8 p.m.

Perkins Student Center, The Lounge, $27

Take a walk back in time—when there was one phone per floor, no computers, no credit cards at UD venues—and where you could grab a dollar's worth of change and hit the Scrounge for some snacks and a study break. Reunite with fellow suitemates from Cannon Hall and other alumni from Central Campus dorms from the class years of 1971–1975 during the Blue Hen Bash event on Saturday evening.

50th Reunion Celebration

50th reunion members (Class of 1964) will be recognized at the Gold Guard Luncheon (see page 7 for more information) and will also celebrate during a class dinner that evening.

Saturday, June 7, 5–10 p.m. — Class Dinner, Puglisi Hall, Roselle Center for the Arts, $25

All class members and guests are invited to reunite with 1964 class members during this time. The program includes hors d'oeuvres, dinner and dessert, and two drink tickets.

Special thanks go to the 2014 class reunion committee members
