Managing Farm and Farm Family Challenges Resiliently
A Worksheet to Explore Resilient Thinking and Doing

What I (we) dream about:

What does this challenge mean to me/us? Is it a threat or an opportunity? Why

What strengths do I and my family members bring to addressing this challenge?

What learning, change or positive growth can we acquire that will support our adaptation and help to reach our dreams?

If we evoke a CAN-DO approach, what would we create together?

What can we do to be more become or remain hopeful and optimistic?

Shared Belief Systems

Organizational Processes And Strategies

What resources do we have or can we acquire to help us adapt to meet this challenge?

What does moving forward and providing mutual support, teamwork, and commitment for each other look like and how do we do it?

Which family, friends, professionals or community organizations can provide support?

What risk management strategies can be put in place or updated?

What strategies can we put in place to enhance financial security and balance our work and life?

Whose roles or which rules need to be adjusted to help address this challenge?

Communication/Problem-solving Processes

What can we do to support clear, consistent information sharing?

What can we do to provide an environment open to sharing our values, meaning and feelings about the challenge?

What can we learn from previous setbacks that will help us address the current challenge?

What new ideas or resources can be brainstormed that will help us reach our dream?

What process can we put in place to share decision making?

Short term steps toward my/our dreams:

Who will help?

____________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________

University of Delaware Cooperative Extension is an equal opportunity provider. Developed by M. Pippidis, University of Delaware Cooperative Extension and B. Braun University of Maryland Extension. This document is one of the tools associated with the Farm and Farm Family Risk and Resilience Guide. The Guide provides an overview of research, frameworks, and assessment and educational tools Extension professionals can use to help create resilient farms. The Guide can be found at: https://www.udel.edu/academics/colleges/canr/cooperative-extension/personal-economic-development/agribusiness/.