

ALUMNI WALL OF FAME NOMINATION GUIDELINES & FORM

Since 1984, the UD Alumni Association's Alumni Wall of Fame Award has recognized University of Delaware alumni who have made outstanding professional achievements while maintaining a connection to their alma mater and community.

Nomination Guidelines:

- The nominee must be a University of Delaware alumnus/na (defined as completing at least 30 credit hours).
- The nominee has made a significant contribution to further their profession or field. This may include:
 - The nominee has been innovative in their field (e.g. changed the profession of physicians for all current and future physicians)
 - Any professional service activities the nominee has been involved with or leadership positions held. Examples include, but are not limited to, elected or appointed offices, directorships, and trusteeships.
- The nominee has significant career accomplishments and achievements. This may include:
 - Holding a senior leadership position within an organization
 - Honors for their excellence and service through professional or civic awards and commendations
 - Reaching a pinnacle of success related to job titles and positions held
- The nominee has maintained a relationship with the University of Delaware. This may include:
 - Serving on a University of Delaware committee, advisory council, or board
 - Speaking on campus, providing internships, or recruiting UD students
 - Attending UD campus, regional alumni club, athletic or other events
 - Maintaining a relationship with their advisor or faculty members
 - Financial support of the University will be considered
- The nominee is involved in their community. This may include:
 - Serving on a local board or as a trustee for an organization
 - Volunteering for an organization or event related to their community or a national cause
 - Connecting their company to the community

Deadline for nominations is Friday, February 24, 2023

ALUMNI WALL OF FAME NOMINATION GUIDELINES & FORM

The Alumni Wall of Fame induction ceremony and reception is held annually over Alumni Weekend (the first weekend in June) on the University of Delaware campus as part of the UDAA's Awards Celebration.

All names of recipients of the UDAA Alumni Wall of Fame Award will be added to the Alumni Circle. Alumni Circle graces the green space between Alumni Hall and the Carpenter Sports Building, near Old College. In addition to the names of Alumni Wall of Fame recipients, the stone walls also include the names of past UDAA presidents and recipients of the Outstanding Alumni Award, Emalea Pusey Warner and the Alexander J. Taylor Sr. Awards for Outstanding Seniors. Visit <https://www.udel.edu/alumni-friends/> for a complete list of past recipients.

Deadline for nominations is Friday, February 24, 2023
