

LEADERSHIP CERTIFICATE FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

June 8 - July 20, 2022

Overview

The program is designed for high-potential graduate students who are poised to lead teams. The certificate is based on the positive leadership framework which develops the leadership skills essential for long-term success, including creative thinking, better problem solving, resilience, and a strong sense of connectedness and purpose in one's work.

Structure

- Seven in-person seminars led by Dr. Jack Baroudi on Wednesdays, 1 - 4 p.m. in Newark campus.
- There will also be asynchronous online components between live sessions.
- Participants are expected to attend all sessions, complete weekly assignments, and share feedback in end-of-program evaluation.

Eligibility

All UD graduate students enrolled in a degree program are welcome to apply. We strongly encourage applications from students from historically marginalized and disadvantaged backgrounds.
