

Job Title: Part-Time Art Teacher for the 2026-2027 Academic Year

Location: The College School at the University of Delaware, 459 Wyoming Road, Newark, DE 19716

Position Type: Part-Time

About The College School:

The College School is dedicated to providing a dynamic and inclusive learning environment for bright students who learn differently in grades 1-8. Our approach emphasizes personalized learning, creativity, and holistic development to nurture the unique talents and abilities of each student.

Job Description:

The College School is seeking a passionate and creative part-time art teacher to join our team. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in art and/or art education and a deep understanding of how to engage and inspire students, specifically those with diverse learning styles. Candidates who have experience as a working artist will be considered in absence of an art education degree. This role involves delivering art instruction to students in grades 1-8 two days a week, with the position likely amounting to 10-12 hours per week; special events, grading, and professional development/in-service days may necessitate additional hours. The school year runs from late August to mid June with holiday breaks throughout the year. The school calendar can be found here.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement an engaging art curriculum that aligns with the school's mission and philosophy and meets the developmental needs of students in grades 1-8;
- Implement a strong and robust classroom management system so that materials and peers are respected and cared for at all times; set a tone for mutual respect in the classroom at all times.
- Create a supportive and inclusive classroom environment where students feel comfortable expressing themselves creatively;
- Plan and facilitate art lessons that cater to the diverse learning needs of students;
- Foster students' artistic skills and encourage experimentation with various mediums and techniques;
- Provide constructive feedback and support to students to help them develop their artistic abilities;
- Collaborate when possible with other teachers and staff to integrate art into interdisciplinary projects and activities;
- Communicate with parents/guardians about students' progress and achievements in art at the end of each semester. This would involve record keeping in Schoology, a learning management system (LMS), and writing comments for report cards;
- Hang student work throughout the building, ensuring that students' names are attached to work in "gallery-style" displays.

- Procure necessary materials and spend within the allocated budget (approximately $20 per student for the school year);
- Maintain cleanliness and order in the School's art studio;
- Liaise with the STEAM educator to facilitate STEAM Night each spring;
- Organize a "visiting artist" program each year;
- Commit to the School's goals to ensure all community members feel a sense of belonging, and celebrate multicultural art and artists;
- Play an active role in special programming that has links to art, artists, and art history;
- Attend the Closing Ceremony;
- Providing art instruction during one week of summer camp programming in June (week of June 21, 2027).

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in art education, fine arts, or a related field (master's degree is preferred);
- Previous experience teaching art to elementary and middle school students is preferred;
- Knowledge of (or commitment to learning) differentiated instruction techniques to support students with diverse learning needs;
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills;
- Ability to create a positive and inclusive classroom environment;
- Passion for working with bright students who learn differently and a commitment to their holistic development.

Schedule and Compensation:

- Part-time position, teaching two days per week (Tuesday and Thursday);
- Hourly rate commensurate with experience and qualifications ($18-24/hour);
- Attendance at weekly staff meetings not required;
- Attendance at opening and year-end meetings is required;
- Funding for webinars will be provided, contingent on budget allowances.

Application Process:

To apply for the Part-Time Art Teacher position at The College School, please submit a cover letter, resume, and if you wish, a small portfolio of your artwork and/or teaching materials to Andrea Glowatz, Director of The College School, at tcs-ud@udel.edu. Please include "Part-Time Art Teacher Application" in the subject line. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled.
