Adjunct Instructor opportunity, Department of History
The Department of History seeks a qualified adjunct instructor to teach HIST314 THE UNITED STATES, 1914-1945 in our MWF 10:10-11:00 timeslot this coming Fall 2019 semester. Enrollment of about twenty students is expected.

Teaching opportunities at both the introductory (HIST1xx) and the intermediate (HIST3xx) undergraduate level may also prove available in subsequent semesters.

Qualifications
Prior classroom teaching experience and a PhD in post-Civil War United States history is required.

Compensation
This is a contingent part-time, non-benefitted position. Academic Year 2019-20 pay for teaching a 3cr undergraduate course with ten or more students enrolled as of the end of free drop-and-add would be $5,940 gross, paid out in semi-monthly direct deposit allotments from mid-September through late December.

Housekeeping
Adjunct faculty must also be available for two office hours a week outside of class as part of their agreement to teach. The University’s fall semester begins Monday, August 26, with student orientations. The HIST314’s first class day would be Wednesday, August 28, and its final class day, Wednesday, December 4. The University will hold no classes on its Friday, October 11, Fall Break or during the Thanksgiving week of November 25-29. The University’s final exams week runs Monday, December 9, through Saturday, December 14. Final fall grade will be due to the Registrar’s Office by December 18.

Applications
To apply, please send a CV and cover letter to Ms. Amy Dolbow at adolbow@udel.edu.

Equal Employment Opportunity
Employment offers will be conditioned upon successful completion of a criminal background check. A conviction will not necessarily exclude you from employment.
