Unique Opportunity at The College School for Students in the College of Education and Human Development

Those passionate about education and seeking a rewarding opportunity to make a positive impact on young minds are encouraged to apply for a part-time position at The College School (TCS). Located on the children's campus at UD, TCS serves students in grades 1-8 and is a part of the College of Education and Human Development.

Position: After-School Club/Enrichment Instructor

Total Hours: 2 hours per week (more if you would like to schedule additional meetings or run additional programs) during the school year, which runs from September 2025 to June 2026. The school calendar can be found here.

Days and Specific Hours: 3:00-4:30 p.m. on a day of the week that works with your schedule

Salary: $15.00/hour

The College School is looking for creative, energetic, and reliable college students to lead after-school clubs for students in grades 1–8. These are paid positions and offer a unique opportunity to design and lead a club based on your own interests, skills, or hobbies. Whether you're into coding, cooking, theatre, yoga, chess, sports, or something entirely unique—we want to hear about your idea! Clubs can meet once or twice per week from 3:00–4:30 p.m., and you're welcome to run more than one. We'll provide the materials and support you need to engage and inspire students who choose to join your club. Think about what you love to do. What could you teach or share with a small group of curious, enthusiastic kids? Click here to share your ideas and we'll explore the possibilities together.

A few suggestions to spark inspiration:

About The College School:

The College School serves as the foundation to promote specialized programs, exceptional teaching, and an engaged community of students and families that define an educational experience unique to a university setting. As an integral part of our team, you will have the unique opportunity to interact with and inspire young learners, contributing to their academic, emotional, and social well-being.

Responsibilities:

As an After-School Club/Enrichment Instructor, your responsibilities will include:

- Preparing content for a 1.5-hour club/enrichment meeting each week;
- Teaching a small number of children (3-8) a skill or leading an activity or series of activities related to the club theme;
