Unique Opportunity at The College School for Students in the College of Education and Human Development

Those passionate about education and seeking a rewarding opportunity to make a positive impact on young minds are encouraged to apply for a part-time position at The College School (TCS). Located on the children's campus at UD, TCS serves students in grades 1-8 and is a part of the College of Education and Human Development.

Position: Before School Program Instructor for the 2026-2027 School Year

Total Hours: at least 5 hours per week during the school year, which runs from September 2026 to June 2027. The school calendar can be found here.

Days and Specific Hours: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from 7:30 a.m. - 9:30 a.m.

Compensation: $15-$17 per hour, depending on experience and education

About The College School:

The College School serves as the foundation to promote specialized programs, exceptional teaching, and an engaged community of students and families that define an educational experience unique to a university setting. As an integral part of our team, you will have the unique opportunity to interact with and inspire young learners, contributing to their academic, emotional, and social well-being.

Responsibilities:

As the Before-School Program Instructor, your responsibilities will include:

- Supervising a small number of children who arrive before the 8 o'clock general arrival time in the art studio.
- Developing an early-morning routine for your cohort, so that mornings are predictable, students feel safe, and days can begin joyfully.
- Supervising arrival time on the playground with a TCS teacher and the director of TCS.
- Supervising a study hall for 5th or 6th grade students from 8:30-9:30 a.m.

Qualifications:

We are looking for individuals who are dedicated, enthusiastic, and committed to the educational growth of young minds. Pre-service teachers/counselors are encouraged to apply. Fingerprint clearances are required.

How to Apply:

Please send a letter of interest to Robin Jadick, Assistant Director, Social-Emotional Wellness at The College School, at tcs-ud@udel.edu.

The College School is an equal opportunity employer and welcomes applicants from diverse backgrounds to apply.
