

Adjunct Faculty Position, Department of English

The English Department seeks a qualified instructor to teach ENGL 430 | Legal Writing beginning in the fall semester of 2025. ENGL430 is part of the Legal Studies Minor but is open to students from a range of disciplines. Course objectives are outlined at https://catalog.udel.edu/preview\_course\_nopop.php?catoid=90&coid=576078

Responsibilities

The successful applicant will be responsible for teaching ENGL430, our Legal Writing course. There is no standard syllabus for ENGL430, so faculty members develop their own syllabi and course materials. A willingness to utilize active learning strategies, extensive feedback, and revision is essential. Adjunct faculty must also be available for office hours and student conferences outside of class as part of their agreement to teach ENGL430. All adjunct faculty will also take part in teaching observations and an annual review.

Qualifications

Candidates must hold an MA in Legal Studies or a closely related field. JDs and PhDs are preferred. Candidates must also have no fewer than 2 years of experience teaching at the college level.

Compensation

These are part-time, non-benefitted positions. Rate of pay is based on level of education and experience.

Applications

To apply, please send the following materials as a single PDF document to Cheryl Rodriguez at cherylr@udel.edu. Although applications are reviewed on an ongoing basis, applications must be received by July 1, 2025 to be considered for the fall 2025 semester.

- A cover letter and curriculum vita.
- A one-page outline of your proposed version of ENGL430, including a list of resources (e.g., textbook, articles, case studies).
- Paragraph-long descriptions of two assignments that you would use in this course.

Equal Employment Opportunity

Employment offers will be conditioned upon successful completion of a criminal background check. A conviction will not necessarily exclude you from employment. The University of Delaware is an Equal Opportunity Employer which encourages applications from historically underrepresented groups and Veterans. The University's Notice of Non- Discrimination can be found at <http://www.udel.edu/aboutus/legalnotices.html>
