2. APPLICABILITY

The Agreement shall prevail over any conflicting terms set forth by Supplier, unless University expressly agrees in writing to the alternate terms and conditions. The Agreement shall prevail over the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) Article 2. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if a written contract signed by both Parties is presently in existence covering the sale of Merchandise or provision of Services covered hereby, or the Parties subsequently enter into such a written contract, the terms and conditions of said contract shall prevail to the extent they are inconsistent with these Terms & Conditions.

3. OFFER AND ACCEPTANCE

This Agreement expressly limits Supplier's acceptance to the terms of the Agreement. Any term or condition in any offer, invoice, or other document issued by Supplier that modifies, adds to, or changes the Agreement is rejected and will not be part of the Agreement unless expressly agreed by University in writing, and signed by a duly authorized signatory of University. If an offer issued by Supplier is referenced in a PO, it is hereby included and made part of the PO only to the extent of specifying the nature of the Merchandise or Services ordered, the price thereof and delivery date, and then only to the extent that such terms are consistent with the Agreement. Supplier should not fulfill its obligations under the Agreement with University without a Purchase Order Number. By fulfilling a University Purchase Order, Supplier agrees to furnish the Merchandise or Services covered by the PO and to be bound by and to comply with the Agreement. The Agreement shall be deemed accepted if Supplier: (1) commences Services; (2) ships all or part of the Merchandise ordered in a PO; or (3) gives any other expression of acceptance of the Terms and Conditions hereof. University reserves the right to revoke the PO at any time before acceptance by Supplier.

4. DELIVERY; PERFORMANCE

4.1. Timely Delivery and Performance. Time is of the essence in Supplier's performance of the Agreement. University is relying upon the promised Merchandise delivery date and/or performance date for Services set forth in the Agreement. If Supplier fails to deliver or perform as and when promised, University, in its sole discretion, may terminate the Agreement, PO, or any part thereof, without prejudice to its other rights, return all or part of any shipment made, and charge Supplier with any loss or expense sustained as a result of such failure to deliver or perform as promised.

4.2. Delivery of Merchandise. Delivery of Merchandise required by the Agreement must be made in the quantities specified by University. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, all Merchandise under the Agreement shall be delivered to the address specified in the Purchase Order (the "Delivery Point"), during University' normal business hours, DDP (Incoterms 2010) or FOB Delivery Point, as applicable. Supplier shall pack all Merchandise for shipment according to University's instructions or, if there are no instructions, in a manner sufficient to ensure that the Merchandise is delivered in undamaged condition.

4.3. Title and Risk of Loss; Inspection. Title to, and risk of loss of, all Merchandise shall remain with Supplier until receipt by University, subject to University' right of inspection and rejection in the event of nonconformance. For a reasonable time after delivery and before acceptance, University shall have the right to inspect and test the Merchandise. University shall notify Supplier if the Merchandise does not conform to the Agreement. At its sole option, University may return to Supplier any rejected Merchandise. Such rejected goods shall remain at Supplier's risk until returned to Supplier at Supplier's expense. University may, in its sole discretion, demand that Supplier promptly repair or replace all nonconforming Merchandise at its sole expense. Payment for Merchandise by University prior to inspection shall not constitute acceptance thereof and is without prejudice to any and all claims that University may against Supplier.

4.4 Performance of Services. Supplier shall provide the Services to University as described in the PO and in accordance with the schedule, if any, set forth in the PO, and in accordance with the Agreement. University shall notify Supplier if the Services do not conform to the Agreement. University may, in its sole discretion, demand that Supplier promptly re-perform all nonconforming Services at its sole expense.

5. PAYMENT

5.1. Payment. University shall pay undisputed invoices within thirty (30) days of receipt of Supplier's invoice contingent upon receipt of a valid IRS W-8 (non-US entities) or UD substitute W9 form (domestic entities). If any portion of the Merchandise or Services does not conform to the requirements of the Agreement, a corresponding portion of the price may be withheld by University until the nonconformity is corrected. No additional charges of any kind, including, but not limited to, charges for boxing, packing, transportation, insurance, tariffs, or container charges, will be allowed unless specifically agreed to in writing by University. Invoices must be sent directly to University Accounts Payable at accountspayable@udel.edu with the Purchase Order number clearly identified on the invoice. Invoices submitted without a valid University PO number will not be processed.

5.2. Taxes. University asserts it is exempt from all federal, state and local taxes and shall provide, upon request, a certificate documenting its tax-exempt status. If it is determined that University is not exempt from such taxes, any sales or use tax imposed on University will be University's sole liability. Supplier shall assume and pay (i) all other taxes, including, but not limited to, any income, franchise, single business or similar taxes levied against Supplier upon or measured by Supplier's gross income, net income, net worth or capital stock, and (ii) interest or penalties resulting from any failure by Supplier to file any returns in a timely manner or to remit the proper amount of taxes or otherwise resulting from Supplier's acts or omissions.

5.3. Royalties and Other Fees. Unless agreed upon by the Parties in writing, any fees, such as royalties (e.g., BMI, ASCAP, SESAC) or union dues, which may be required in connection with or as a result of the Agreement, are the sole responsibility of Supplier.

6. TERMINATION

6.1. Termination for Convenience. University may terminate the Agreement in whole or in part at any time without cause upon at least thirty (30) days written notice to Supplier. If this Agreement is a subcontract (with University being the contractor to another party, and Supplier being University's subcontractor), then University may immediately terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Supplier if the prime contract is terminated for any reason. If University terminates this Agreement without cause, University will promptly pay Supplier for its Services performed and for Merchandise delivered and accepted in accordance with the terms of this Agreement through the effective date of termination. Such payment by University shall be Supplier's sole and exclusive remedy in connection with such termination.

6.2. Termination for Cause. Either Party may terminate this Agreement upon at least ten (10) days' written notice to the other Party, for breach of this Agreement by the other Party, unless during such notice period, the breaching Party fully cures the breach to the other Party's reasonable satisfaction.

6.3. Immediate Termination. University shall have the right to terminate immediately: (i) upon the institution by or against Supplier of insolvency, receivership or bankruptcy proceedings or any other proceeding for the settlement of debts; (ii) upon Supplier making an assignment for the benefit of creditors; (iii) upon Supplier's dissolution or ceasing to do business, or Supplier's taking of any corporate action for such purpose; (v) has a receiver, trustee, custodian or similar agent appointed to take charge of or sell any material portion of its property or business; or (vi) as set forth in Section 8.2 of these Terms & Conditions.

6.4. Continuing Obligations. In the event of expiration or termination of the Agreement for any reason, or at any time upon University's request, Supplier will: (i) immediately return to University any University proprietary materials, property and information in Supplier's possession or control, including, without limitation all University Confidential/Proprietary Information and any deliverables then under development; (ii) immediately permanently delete any University Confidential/Proprietary Information from Supplier's IT systems; and (iii) at University's request, cooperate with University in the transition of the work performed under the Agreement to University or its designee, which cooperation may include, at University's option, continued performance of Services in accordance with the terms of the Agreement as directed by University.

7. CONFIDENTIAL OR PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

7.1. Supplier's Obligations. Supplier agrees, on behalf of itself and its employees and subcontractors, to treat as confidential all University Confidential/Proprietary Information. Supplier shall not use or disclose any University Confidential/Proprietary Information except to the extent that such information is required to be disclosed to Supplier personnel who have a "need to know" such Confidential/Proprietary Information in order for Supplier to perform the Services or provide the Merchandise. Supplier agrees that the Confidential/Proprietary Information will be used solely in connection with performance of the Services and provision of the Merchandise and will not be used, directly or indirectly, in any manner in competition with or detrimental to University. Supplier shall maintain the Confidential/Proprietary Information with the same degree of care Supplier uses to maintain its own confidential information, and, in all events, Supplier shall maintain the Confidential/Proprietary Information with no less than commercially reasonable care. Supplier's confidentiality obligations include establishing and maintaining appropriate safeguards, procedures, and systems to avoid the unauthorized use, destruction, loss, alteration, access to, or disclosure of any University Confidential/Proprietary Information, in accordance with industry best practices and as otherwise required by applicable law. Supplier shall not disclose to University, nor induce University to use any proprietary, secret or confidential information or material belonging to others, including any current or former employers or persons with whom Supplier has had a consulting arrangement. In addition to the foregoing, Supplier will comply with the additional obligations applicable to Personally Identifiable Information as specified on the Data Privacy and Security Addendum.

7.2. University's Obligations. University shall treat as confidential all of Supplier's proprietary methodologies, software and materials that Supplier provides to University hereunder and which are marked "Confidential" or "Proprietary." In no event will Supplier's Confidential/Proprietary Information be deemed to include any University Confidential/Proprietary Information.

7.3. Mutual Obligations. During and after the term of the Agreement, neither Party will use nor disclose the other Party's Confidential/Proprietary Information, except for the purpose of providing, receiving or using the Merchandise or Services in accordance with this Agreement, or as may be required by applicable law, regulation or court order.

7.4. Exceptions. The obligations of confidentiality under this Section do not apply to any information to the extent it: (i) was known to the receiving Party prior to such Party's receipt of or access to that information under this Agreement; (ii) was or becomes a matter of public information or publicly available through no act or failure to act on the part of the receiving Party; (iii) is acquired from a third party entitled to disclose the information without obligation of confidentiality; or (iv) is developed independently and without use of the disclosing Party's Confidential/Proprietary Information. Except as otherwise required by applicable laws or regulations, the Parties agree to, and to cause their respective affiliates to, keep confidential all non-public information relating to this Agreement.

7.5 Return. Upon University's request or upon termination of this Agreement, as applicable, Supplier shall promptly return all documents and other materials received from University, including, but not limited to, all University Confidential/Proprietary Information and as further specified in the Data Privacy and Security Addendum with respect to Personally Identifiable Information.

In the event Supplier becomes debarred, or learns that a person performing on its behalf under the Agreement has been debarred or has become subject of debarment proceedings, Supplier shall promptly notify University and University shall have the right to immediately terminate the Agreement without penalty.

8.3. Conflict of Interest. Supplier represents, warrants and guarantees that there exists no actual, potential or appearance of conflict between Supplier and University. Furthermore, Supplier represents that it has not offered (and will not offer during the term of the Agreement) any compensation, reward, gift, favor, service, outside employment, reimbursement of expenses, loan, ownership interest, or anything else of value, to any officer, employee, or faculty member of University as an inducement to enter into or renew the Agreement. Supplier will notify University in writing of any change in conditions that might give the appearance of a conflict of interest.

8.4. Services. Supplier represents, warrants and guarantees that any Services provided under this Agreement shall be: (i) provided in a timely manner, and in accordance with the Agreement, applicable law and University policy; (ii) suitable for the purposes contemplated in the Agreement and befitting an institution of higher learning; (iii) in conformity with any applicable specifications or documentation; (iv) provided by personnel of required skill, experience and qualifications; (v) provided in a skillful, workmanlike and highly professional manner and consistent with generally recognized industry standards and best practices and procedures in Supplier's field; and (vi) provided to the satisfaction of University. Supplier will obtain all required governmental and third-party licenses, approvals, and permits appropriate for the provision of Services. Supplier warrants that the Services will not violate, infringe or misappropriate the rights of any third party, and that Supplier has all power and authority necessary to convey ownership of the Services to University in accordance with the Agreement.

8.5. Malware. Supplier represents, warrants and guarantees that any Merchandise, if applicable, and any deliverables resulting from the Services do not include, and that any method of transmitting said deliverables to University will not introduce, any program, routine, subroutine, known vulnerability, or data (including malicious software or "malware," viruses, ransomware, worms or Trojan Horses) that are designed to disrupt the proper operation of the Merchandise or deliverables or any other software or system used by University, or which, upon the occurrence of a certain event, the passage of time, or the taking of or failure to take any action, will cause the deliverables resulting from the Services or any system, software or data used in connection therewith to be destroyed, damaged or rendered inoperable or inaccessible.

8.6. Merchandise. Supplier represents, warrants and guarantees, for a period of twelve (12) months after delivery and acceptance, that any Merchandise provided under this Agreement shall be: (i) provided in accordance with the SOW and/or PO and correct and appropriate for the purposes contemplated in this Agreement; (ii) is fit for the purpose for which similar Merchandise is ordinarily employed; (iii) is free from defects in materials and/or workmanship, and is merchantable; (iv) was not manufactured and is not being priced or sold in violation of any federal, state or local law, including without limitation those relating to health and safety; (v) will perform according to industry standards and any applicable specifications or documentation; and (vi) will not violate, infringe or misappropriate the rights of any third party. In addition to the foregoing, Supplier represents and warrants to University that it has all power and authority to convey ownership of the Merchandise to University in accordance with this Agreement, that the Merchandise is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, and that Supplier has a good and marketable title to same. Supplier agrees to defend and indemnify University for any liability and damages resulting from third-party claims challenging Supplier's or University's title to the Merchandise. These warranties shall survive acceptance of and payment for the Merchandise and shall be in addition to any other warranties or service guarantee, express or implied, given by Supplier to University. Replaced or repaired goods shall be warranted for the remainder of the warranty period or six (6) months, whichever is longer.

8.7. Equipment. Supplier represents, warrants and guarantees that any equipment provided under the Agreement shall be: (i) the manufacturer's latest model in production (unless the PO specifies otherwise); (ii) that parts are all in production and will not be discontinued within the [five (5) year] period commencing on the date of delivery; (iii) that trained mechanics are regularly employed to make necessary repairs to equipment in the territory from which the service request may emanate within a 48-hour period; and (iv) that during the manufacturer's warranty period for such equipment the Supplier shall replace immediately any equipment which is rejected for failure to meet the requirements of this Agreement.

8.8 Remedies. The warranties set forth in this Section 8 are cumulative and in addition to any other warranty provided by law or equity. Any applicable statute of limitations runs from the date of University's discovery of the noncompliance of the Merchandise or Services with the foregoing warranties. If University gives Supplier notice of noncompliance pursuant to this Section 8.8, Seller shall, at its own cost and expense, promptly (i) replace or repair the defective or nonconforming Merchandise and pay for all related expenses, including, but not limited to, transportation charges for the return of the defective or nonconforming Merchandise to Supplier and the delivery of repaired or replacement Merchandise to University, and, if applicable, (ii) re-perform the applicable Services.

9. INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Supplier will indemnify, hold harmless and defend University, its trustees, officers, faculty, students, agents, and employees against any and all damages, suits, actions, claims, demands, liabilities, losses, judgments, costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, court costs, judgments or settlements arising out of or relating to: (i) any acts or omissions of Supplier or any of its employees, agents or subcontractors in the performance of Supplier's obligations hereunder; (ii) any breach of or failure to perform any of the terms or conditions of the Agreement by Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors, and their employees and agents, including, but not limited to, Supplier's confidentiality, security or privacy obligations or obligations concerning timely payment to subcontractors; (iii) the inaccuracy or breach of any representation, warranty or covenant made by Supplier in the Agreement; (iv) any breach or violation of any applicable law by Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors, or their employees and agents; (v) any actual or alleged violation, infringement or misappropriation of any third-party intellectual property or proprietary rights (including, without limitation, trademark, trade secret, copyright or patent) by the Services, Work Product or Merchandise; (vi) injury (including personal injury or death) to any person (including Supplier's employees) or damage to any property of any kind or nature; (vii) any legal actions brought by Supplier's employees against University that would otherwise be covered by workers' compensation; or (viii) withholding or failure to withhold income taxes or paying or failing to pay social security or unemployment taxes or other assessments with respect to compensation paid to its employees. The obligations of Supplier in this provision shall not be construed to negate, abridge or otherwise reduce any other rights or obligations of indemnity which would otherwise exist as to a party or person described in this provision including those at law or in equity or otherwise. In claims against University, the indemnification obligation herein shall not be limited by a limitation on the amount or type of damages, compensation or benefits payable by or for any party under workers' compensation acts, disability benefit acts or other employee benefit acts. Supplier acknowledges that the indemnity granted to the University by this Agreement includes indemnification for claims brought by employees or subcontractors of Supplier against University. In the event that such a claim is made by an employee or subcontractor of Supplier, Supplier agrees to waive the immunity that the Worker's Compensation Act provides to employers against indemnity claims by parties such as University.

9.2 Additional Infringement Remedy. Should the Services, Work Product or Merchandise become, or in University's opinion be likely to become, the subject of a claim of infringement, Supplier shall, at University's option, procure for University the right to continue to use the Services, Work Product or Merchandise, shall replace the same with non-infringing functionally equivalent services or merchandise, or shall modify the Services, Work Product or Merchandise to make them non-infringing. If the foregoing remedies are not commercially feasible, or if Supplier determines to contest the claim of infringement without making such arrangements, Supplier shall promptly notify University. In such event, in addition to its rights to indemnification under Section 9.1 and any other remedies to which it may be entitled, University shall have the right to terminate the Agreement upon written notice, and to receive a prorated refund of any prepaid fees for unexpired portions of the Term.

9.3 Limitation of Liability. This GDPR Schedule specifies the obligations applicable to Supplier when it is processing personal data on behalf of the University and such data is subject to the GDPR.
